(f) If the casino gaming licensee provides periodic payments to satisfy a payout resulting from a wager, the initial installment payment when paid and the actual cost of a payment plan approved by the Commission and funded by the licensee may be deducted from winnings. For any funding method which merely guarantees the licensee's performance and under which the licensee makes payments directly out of cash flow (e.g., irrevocable letters of credits, surety bonds, or other similar methods), the licensee may only deduct such payments when paid to the patron.

(g) The casino gaming licensee shall not exclude money paid out on wagers that are knowingly accepted by the licensee in violation of the Commonwealth Code or these regulations from gross revenue.

(a) The Commission shall establish fees for the application issuance and renewal of all licenses pursuant to the Act.

(d) Unless otherwise specifically exempted by the Commission, all application fees are fully earned when received by the Commonwealth Treasury or the Commission. COMMONWEALTH OF THE NORTHERN MARIANA ISLANDS
DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

In Re Matter of:) Labor Case No. 19-057
Christopher R. Lilles,) Secretary Appeal No. 20-002 Appellant,) FINAL AGENCY DECISION
v.)
Micronesia Resort, Inc.,) Respondent.)

I. INTRODUCTION

On August 18, 2020, Appellant timely filed a notice of appeal regarding the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law entered by the Administrative Hearing Officer in this case. Appellant argues that 1) the Administrative Hearing Officer abused her discretion in refusing to consider materials submitted by Appellant, i.e. page 20 of the employee handbook, and 2) the Administrative Hearing Officer erred in holding that the employment contract was the only source of legal duty binding the employer.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

“An appeal is commenced by filing a notice of appeal on the standard form provided by the Department and payment of the fee . . .” NMIAC 80-20.1-490(a). “The record before the Secretary consists of the complaint, pleadings filed, exhibits, and order of the hearing officer.” NMAIC § 80-20.1-490(c). “When the Secretary is exercising jurisdiction over appeals from final orders of the Administrative Hearing Office, the Secretary shall have all the powers and responsibilities of a hearing officer. No hearing or oral argument on an appeal is required.” NMIAC 80-20.1-490(d). “In a review on appeal, the Secretary may restrict review to the existing record, supplement the record with new evidence, hear oral argument, or hear the matter de novo pursuant to 1 CMC §§ 9109 and 9110. Upon completion of review, the Secretary shall affirm, reverse or modify the findings, decision, or order of the hearing office.” NMIAC § 80-20.1-490 (e).

III. DISCUSSION

Upon review of the record and Notice of Appeal, the undersigned finds that the Appellant fails to meet their burden on appeal.

1. The Administrative Hearing Officer did not abuse her discretion in declining to consider exhibits submitted after the record was closed.

The Employment Rules and Regulations provide:

When a hearing is conducted, the record shall be closed at the conclusion of the hearing unless the hearing officer directs otherwise. If any party waives a hearing, the record shall be closed upon receipt of submissions of the parties or at the time deadlines set by the hearing officer for receipt of such submissions. Unless the hearing officer directs otherwise, no document or other evidentiary matter may be submitted after the record is closed.

NMIAC § 80-20.1-480 (m).

Here, both parties were ordered to submit exhibits to the Administrative Hearing Office prior to the commencement of the hearing on July 29, 2020. The record shows that Appellant did not submit page 20 as an exhibit and did not introduce page 20 into evidence at the hearing. It was only after the close of the hearing that Appellant attempted to submit page 20 of the employee handbook into the record. Accordingly, Appellant's submission of page 20 was untimely and the Administrative Hearing Officer's decision not to consider page 20 was properly based on the applicable regulation.

2. Appellant's argument to consider the policies is not persuasive.

Appellant argues that the Administrative Hearing Officer should have also considered the employee handbook and Appellee's email, which contained information on the employer's duty to pay out vacation leave. The undersigned disagrees.

First, Appellant fails to cite any applicable precedent in support of this argument—instead, Appellant cites laws from outside jurisdiction and does not develop legal analysis.¹ While employers may be held contractually obligated to the promises in an employee handbook, contract

¹ Legal arguments should be supported by law and analysis. When arguments are insufficiently developed or raised in a conclusory manner, arguments are deemed waived. *Mengli Ma v. 1 interpretation issues are made based on the language within "four corners of the document."²
2 Under Commonwealth law, it is improper to look to outside documents to supplement, contradict,
3 or explain what the contract means if the contract is unambiguous.³ Here, the Hearing Officer 4 found the contract was unambiguous and decided the issue based on the four corners of the document.

5 Second, there is nothing in the record to show that the employee handbook was a legally
6 binding contract or that the employee handbook created a legal obligation to pay for any unused
7 leave. The undersigned recognized that Respondent's Assistant Human Resources Manager
8 testified that the company has a "policy" for paying employee unpaid leave. However, said policy
9 falls short of a contract or contractual obligation. Therefore, the Administrative Hearing Officer 10 did not err in relying on the four corners of the employment contract to determine whether 11 Appellee was required to pay for any unused leave.

12 IV. CONCLUSION

13 Accordingly, pursuant to NMIAC § 80-20.1-490 (e), the Administrative Hearing Officer's

¹ Appellant's wife was present but did not provide testimony.

II. JURISDICTION

On March 27, 2020, the Coronavirus Aid Relief and Economic Security (“CARES”) Act of 2020 was signed into law creating new temporary federal programs for unemployment benefits called Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (“PUA”)² and Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (“FPUC”).³ On March 29, 2020, the CNMI Government executed an agreement with the US Secretary of Labor to operate the PUA and FPUC program in accordance to applicable law.⁴ The CNMI Department of Labor is charged with the responsibility in administering the above-mentioned programs in the CNMI. The CNMI Department of Labor Administrative Hearing Office has been designated to preside over first level appeals under PUA.

Upon review of the records, the appeal was timely filed. Accordingly, jurisdiction is established.

III. PROCEDURAL HISTORY & ISSUE

Appellant filed a claim for unemployment benefits under the PUA and FPUC programs. Upon review of Appellant’s application and supporting documents, the Department issued its initial determination on September 1, 2020. The Department’s determination found the Appellant was not a qualified alien denied benefits from March 15, 2020 to December 26, 2020.

Appellant filed the present appeal on September 4, 2020. The issue on appeal is whether Appellant is a qualified alien eligible for Pandemic Unemployment Assistance.

IV. FINDINGS OF FACT

In consideration of the evidence provided and credibility of witness testimony, the undersigned issues the following findings of fact:

1. Prior to the pandemic, Appellant was employed as a News Camera Man for KSPN, Channel 2 located in Susupe, Saipan. Appellant regularly worked 40 hours per week at an hourly rate of $10.
2. Appellant is still employed with KSPN, but on reduced hours since the office is closed Tuesdays and Thursdays, effective March 23, 2020 to present.

³ See Section 2104 of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136.

⁴ Pursuant to Section 2102(h) of the CARES Act of 2020 (Pub. L. 116-136) and 20 CFR § 625.2(r)(1)(ii), the CNMI Governor issued Executive Order No. 2020-09 declaring Hawaii Employment Security Law as the applicable state law in the CNMI. Hawaii Employment Security Law applies, to the extent it does not conflict with federal law.

3. At the time of employment, Appellant was authorized to work in the CNMI.
4. Appellant applied for permanent residency on or around July 2019. Appellant's application for permanent residency is still pending.
5. Appellant possesses an Employment Authorization Card⁵ with the following credentials:
 - a. USCIS #: 208-787-206;
 - b. Category: C09;
 - c. Card #: MSC1991274061; and
 - d. Valid from September 4, 2019 to September 3, 2020.
6. The Employment Authorization Document Card is a work permit that allows noncitizens to work in the United States.
7. The Department entered Appellant's information into the Systematic Alien Verification for Entitlements (SAVE) database maintained by US Department of Homeland Security, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, Verification Division. This database is used to determine the immigration status of PUA applicants so only those entitled to benefits receive them.
8. The SAVE results indicate that Appellant is a nonimmigrant, authorized for temporary employment.⁶ This means that Appellant is a non-national of the United States who is admitted to the United States for a specific reason and for a limited period of time.

V. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

In consideration of the above-stated findings and applicable law, the undersigned issues the following conclusions of law:

1. Appellant's employment was affected as a direct result of COVID-19.

Pursuant to Section 2102 of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136, there are a number of requirements to meet the eligibility standard of PUA. First, the claimant cannot be qualified for regular unemployment, extended benefits under state or federal law, or pandemic emergency unemployment compensation (PEUC).⁷ Second, the claimant must show that he or she is able and available for work, as defined by Hawaii law, except they are unemployed,

⁷ This was not at issue in this matter.

1 partially unemployed, or unable to work or unable for work due to at least one of the following
2 COVID-19 reason identified in Section 2102 (a)(3)(A)(ii)(I) of the CARES Act:

- 3 (a) The individual has been diagnosed with COVID-19 or is experiencing symptoms of 4 COVID-19 and is seeking a medical diagnosis;
- 5 (b) A member of the individual's household has been diagnosed with COVID-19;
- 6 (c) The individual is providing care for a family member or a member of the individual's
7 household who has been diagnosed with COVID-19;
- 8 (d) A child or other person in the household for which the individual has primary
9 caregiving responsibility is unable to attend school or another facility that is closed as
10 a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency and such school or facility
11 care is required for the individual to work;
- 12 (e) The individual is unable to reach the place of employment because of a quarantine
13 imposed as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency;
- 14 (f) The individual is unable to reach the place of employment because the individual has 15 been advised by a health care provider to quarantine due to concerns related to
16 COVID-19;
- 17 (g) The individual was scheduled to commence employment and does not have a job or is 18 unable to reach the job as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency;
- 19 (h) The individual has become the breadwinner or major support for a household because 20 the health of the household has died as a direct result of COVID-19;
- 21 (i) The individual has to quit his or her job as a direct result of COVID-19;
- 22 (j) The individual's place of employment is closed as a direct result of the COVID-19
23 public health emergency; or
- 24 (k) The individual is an independent contractor who is unemployed (total or partial) or is 25 unable or unavailable to work because of the COVID-19 public health emergency has severely limited his or her ability to continue performing the customary job.

Based on the evidence and testimony provided, it is clear that Appellant's employment was affected as a direct result of COVID-19. Due to COVID-19, there was an immediate halt in tourism. The lack of tourism greatly impacted the revenue streams of businesses throughout the CNMI, including KSPN Channel 2. For those reasons, the employer had to reduce hours by closing the office and operations on Tuesdays and Thursdays, every week. Accordingly, Appellant employment was directly affected by a COVID-19 reason, as indicated above.

26 2. Appellant is not a qualified alien eligible for PUA.

27 PUA and FPUC are federal public benefits as defined by 8 USC §1611(c). As a condition of 28 eligibility for any federal public benefit, the claimant must be a "qualified alien" at the time relevant to the claim. 8 USC §1611(a). Pursuant to 8 USC §1641, the term "qualified alien" is:

Administrative Order

1. An alien admitted for permanent residence under the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA);
2. An alien granted asylum under § 208 of the INA;
3. A refugee admitted to the US under § 207 of the INA;
4. An alien paroled into the US under § 212(d)(5) of the INA for at least one year;
5. An alien whose deportation is being withheld under § 243(h) of the INA ... or whose removal is being withheld under § 241 (b)(3) of the INA;
6. An alien granted conditional entry pursuant to § 203 (a)(7) of the INA;
7. An alien who is a Cuban or Haitian entrant as defined in § 501(e) of the Refugee Education Assistance Act of 1980; or
8. An alien who (or whose child or parent) has been battered or subject to extreme cruelty in the U.S. and otherwise satisfies the requirements of § 431(c) of the Act.

Here, Appellant argues that he is a qualified alien because he applied for permanent residency around July 2019 and that his application is pending because of delays associated with the pandemic.

Appellant's argument fails for the following reasons. First, the Employment Authorization Document Card indicates that Appellant was authorized to work based on Category C09. Category C09 is a code that USCIS utilizes for applicants pending an adjustment in status. Category C09 does not fit into any type of qualified aliens entitled to benefits under the PUA program. While Appellant may have submitted an application for permanent residence, the application for permanent residency has not been approved. Further, considering that the application is still pending, there is no showing that Appellant was a permanent resident during the weeks claimed. Therefore, Appellant was not a qualified alien at the time of the weeks claimed.

VI. ORDER

For the reasons stated above, it is ORDERED that:

1. The CNMI Department of Labor's Determination is AFFIRMED; and
2. The Appellant is NOT ELIGIBLE to receive PUA benefits for the period of March 15, 2020 to December 26, 2020.

Instructions and appeal rights with respect to second level appeals are pending clarification from U.S. Department of Labor. Until then, any party aggrieved by this Order may request a second level appeal with a signed letter to indicating why he or she disagrees with the decision. The letter may be submitted to the Administrative Hearing Office in person (Building #1357,

1 Mednilla Ave) or electronically mailed to hearing@dol.gov.mp. Further action regarding second
2 level appeals will remain pending until further guidance from U.S. Department of Labor.

3 So ordered this 24th day of September, 2020.

I. INTRODUCTION

This matter came before the undersigned for an Administrative Hearing on September 15, 2020 at 1:30 p.m. at the Administrative Hearing Office. Due to the ongoing COVID-19 public health emergency, the hearing was held telephonically. Appellant Pedro Litulumar Romolor ("Appellant") was present and self-represented. Appellee CNMI Department of Labor Division of Employment Services – Pandemic Unemployment Assistance program ("Appellee" or "Department") was present and represented by Director of Employment Services Eugene Tebuteb and PUA Supervisor Jake Maratita. There were no other witnesses who provided testimony at the hearing.¹ The following exhibits have been admitted onto the record:

Exhibit 1: Employer's Separation Notice dated 6/12/2020

Exhibit 2: Appellant's Doctors Certification dated 8/31/2020

For the reasons stated below, the Department's Redetermination dated August 25, 2020 is MODIFIED. Claimant is qualified for benefits for the period March 29, 2020 to April 23, 2020. Claimant is disqualified for benefits for the period of April 23, 2020 to present.

II. JURISDICTION

On March 27, 2020, the Coronavirus Aid Relief and Economic Security ("CARES") Act of 2020 was signed into law creating new temporary federal programs for unemployment benefits

¹ Appellant's wife, Lorenza Itibus Romolor, was present but did not provide testimony.

1 called Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (“PUA”) and Federal Pandemic Unemployment
2 Compensation (“FPUC”). On March 29, 2020, the CNMI Government executed an agreement
3 with the US Secretary of Labor to operate the PUA and FPUC program in accordance to 4 applicable law.² The CNMI Department of Labor is charged with the responsibility in
5 administering the above-mentioned programs in the CNMI. The CNMI Department of Labor
6 Administrative Hearing Office has been designated to preside over first level appeals under PUA.

7 Upon review of the records, the appeal was timely filed. Accordingly, jurisdiction is
8 established.

9 III. PROCEDURAL HISTORY & ISSUE

10 Appellant filed a claim for unemployment benefits under the PUA and FPUC programs. Upon
11 review of Appellant’s application and supporting documents, the Department issued its initial 12 determination denying benefits on July 24, 2020.

13 On August 11, 2020, Appellant filed a timely request for reconsideration but failed to submit
14 additional information or documents to support reconsideration. Accordingly, the Department
15 issued a redetermination on August 25, 2020. The Department’s redetermination found Appellant 16 ineligible because he failed to submit any additional documentation to support his request for 17 reconsideration. Based on the redetermination, Appellant was denied benefits from March 29,
2020 to December 26, 2020.

18 Appellant filed the present appeal on September 3, 2020. The issue on appeal is whether 19 Appellant is eligible for Pandemic Unemployment Assistance.

20 IV. FINDINGS OF FACT

21 In consideration of the record and credibility of witness testimony, the undersigned issues the 22 following findings of fact:

- 23 1. Appellant is employed by G4S. G4S is a private security company contracted to provide 24 guards at various businesses and common tourist sites on Saipan.

27 ² Pursuant to Section 2102(h) of the CARES Act of 2020 (Pub. L. 116-136) and 20 CFR § 625.2(r)(1)(ii), the CNMI
28 Governor issued Executive Order No. 2020-09 declaring Hawaii Employment Security Law as the applicable state law in the CNMI. Hawaii Employment Security Law applies, to the extent it does not conflict with federal law.

2. Appellant worked as a Security Officer at G4S from October 9, 2013 to March 29, 2020. Appellant is a regular, full-time employee with a work week of 32 hours or more per work week. Appellant is paid at the rate of $7.25 per hour.
3. During the relevant time period, Appellant was stationed to guard a number of hotels and tourist sites. However, due to the halt in tourism and reduction of business activity, Appellant's stations were shut down when various G4S contracts were cancelled or placed on hold.
4. Appellant was scheduled to report for work at the Bank of Hawaii station on April 23, 2020. Appellant showed up to his assigned post but quickly left because: (1) he was not equipped with a mask or able to afford a mask; (2) there were a lot of people in the area; and (3) he has a prior health condition.
5. While Appellant is still employed with G4S, the last day Appellant worked for G4S was March 29, 2020. He has not been scheduled to work since April 23, 2020, when he refused to work at the Bank of Hawaii station.
6. Appellant is under medical care for hypertension and chest pains unrelated to COVID-19. On August 31, 2020, Appellant's doctor certified that Appellant is at an increased risk for COVID-19.
7. Appellant has not looked for other or related work since the pandemic.

V. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

In consideration of the above-stated findings and applicable law, the undersigned issues the following conclusions of law:

1. Appellant failed to supply documents in a timely manner.

Under Haw. Code R. § 12-5-81(i-j), a claimant is required to respond or complete an action as directed by the agency. This includes reporting to appointments scheduled by the agency and/or requests to provide information or documents. If a claimant fails to respond as directed, s/he is not eligible for benefits in the affected week, unless good cause is shown for the failure. The standard of "good cause" is generally considered to include exigent circumstances or those beyond the control of the claimant such as illness, and/or other reasons which would prevent a reasonable person from complying as directed.

Upon reconsideration, Appellant was ordered to supply the Department with additional documents to support his continued eligibility, in light of the separation notice indicating

1 Appellant was recalled to work but did not show. Appellant did not submit those documents
2 within the time frame provided because he did not have said documents. Without additional 3 evidence or documents to support reconsideration, the Department had no choice but to issue the 4 denial.

5 2. Appellant is eligible for PUA from March 29, 2020 to April 22, 2020 because his 6 place of Employment was closed as a direct result of COVID-19.

7 Pursuant to Section 2102 of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136, there are a number
8 of requirements to meet the eligibility standard of PUA. First, the claimant cannot be qualified
9 for regular unemployment, extended benefits under state or federal law, or pandemic emergency
10 unemployment compensation (PEUC).³ Second, the claimant must show that he or she is able and 11 available for work, as defined by Hawaii state law, except they are unemployed, partially 12 unemployed, or unable to work or unable for work due to at least one of the following COVID-
13 19 reason identified in Section 2102 (a)(3)(A)(ii)(I) of the CARES Act:

- 14 (a) The individual has been diagnosed with COVID-19 or is experiencing symptoms of 15 COVID-19 and is seeking a medical diagnosis;
- 16 (b) A members of the individual's household has been diagnosed with COVID-19;
- 17 (c) The individual is providing care for a family member or a member of the individual's
18 household who has been diagnosed with COVID-19;
- 19 (d) A child or other person in the household for which the individual has primary
20 caregiving responsibility is unable to attend school or another facility that is closed as
21 a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency and such school or facility
22 care is required for the individual to work;
- 23 (e) The individual is unable to reach the place of employment because of a quarantine
24 imposed as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency;
- 25 (f) The individual is unable to reach the place of employment because the individual has 26 been advised by a health care provider to quarantine due to concerns related to
27 COVID-19;
- 28 (g) The individual was scheduled to commence employment and does not have a job or is unable to reach the job as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency;
- (h) The individual has become the breadwinner or major support for a household because the health of the household has died as a direct result of COVID-19;
- (i) The individual has to quit his or her job as a direct result of COVID-19;

³ For claimants working solely in the CNMI, this is not an issue.

1 (j) The individual's place of employment is closed as a direct result of the COVID-19
2 public health emergency; or

3 (k) The individual is an independent contractor who is unemployed (total or partial) or is
4 unable or unavailable to work because of the COVID-19 public health emergency has
5 severely limited his or her ability to continue performing the customary job.

6 Based on the evidence and testimony provided, it is clear that Appellant's employment was 7 affected as a direct result of COVID-19. Due to the threat of COVID-19, there were closures of 8 government offices, restrictions on private businesses, and an overall reduction in revenue from 9 the immediate halt in tourism. The lack of tourism greatly impacted the revenue streams of 10 government offices and private businesses that hire security guards as independent contractors.
11 For that reason, many G4S contracts were terminated or put on hold. Further, with tourism down, 12 contracts to guard the tourist sites and hotels were widely affected. With respect to Appellant, the 13 locations he was guarding closed. Accordingly, the Appellant's place of employment was closed
14 as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency.

15 3. Appellant is not eligible for PUA after April 23, 2020 when he turned down suitable 16 work due to a general fear of contracting COVID-19.

17 Generally, in order to remain eligible for PUA, the CARES Act requires the individual to 18 certify that they are able and available to work, except for a COVID-19 reason. The terms "able"
19 and "available" are defined by Hawaii state law. A person is considered "able" to work if the 20 individual has the physical and mental ability to perform the usual duties of the individual's 21 customary occupation or other work for which the individual is reasonably fitted by training and 22 experience.⁴ If the claimant is medically not able to work because of one of the COVID-19 reasons
23 listed above, the individual may still be eligible. A person is considered "available" to work is the 24 individual is reading and willing to accept employment for which the individual is reasonably 25 fitted by training and experience.⁵ Refusing to return to work in order to obtain PUA benefits is 26 considered fraud. Further, an individual is not eligible if they turn down suitable work, unless for 27 a COVID-19 reason above.

28 Here, Appellant was given the opportunity to work on April 23, 2020. Appellant was scheduled to guard the Bank of Hawaii post in Gualo Rai, Saipan. While the location of this

⁵ HAR § 12-5-35(a)(2).

1 assignment is different, the work to be done was the same. Since the work and the employer were 2 the same, there is no question that Appellant was reasonably fitted by training and experience to 3 do the job.

4 However, Appellant refused to work because he did not bring a mask, there were a lot of 5 people in the area, and he has a prior health condition unrelated to COVID-19. Notably, a prior 6 health condition and general fear of contracting COVID-19 is not one of the qualifying COVID-19 reason to turn down suitable work.

7 The Doctor's Certification provided by Appellant states that he is under care for hypertension
8 and investigations for chest pain which place him at an increased risk of COVID-19.⁶ The 9 Doctor's Certification is insufficient to qualify or make Appellant eligible for the PUA for a 10 number of reasons. First, the Doctor's Certification provides no requirements or orders for 11 Appellant to quarantine. Second, Appellant's health circumstances are unrelated to and predate
12 the COVID-19 pandemic. Third, even if the undersigned were to interpret the provisions stating 13 Appellant is at an increased risk as an order to self-quarantine, this Doctor's Certification is dated 14 August 31, 2020 – months after Appellant refused to work.

15 In summary, a general fear of contracting COVID-19 is not a qualifying reason under the 16 CARES Act. By refusing suitable work based on a general fear of contracting COVID-19,
17 Appellant demonstrates that he is not "able" and "available" to work, as required by the CARES
Act. Accordingly, Appellant is not eligible to receive PUA benefits starting April 23, 2020.

18 VI. ORDER

19 Having reviewed the record and applicable law, it is ORDERED that:

- 20 1. The CNMI Department of Labor's Determination is MODIFIED;
- 21 2. Appellant is ELIGIBLE to receive PUA benefits for the period of March 29, 2020 to 22 April 22, 2020; and
- 23 3. The Appellant is NOT ELIGIBLE to receive PUA benefits for the period of April 23, 24 2020 to the date of this writing.

25 Instructions and appeal rights with respect to second level appeals are pending clarification
26 from U.S. Department of Labor. Until then, any party aggrieved by this Order may request a
27 second level appeal with a signed letter to indicating why he or she disagrees with the decision.

2. Exhibit 2: A copy of Appellant's Employment Authorization Card (valid from 9/11/19 to 9/10/20);
3. Exhibit 3: A copy of SAVE Results submitted by the Department

II. JURISDICTION

On March 27, 2020, the Coronavirus Aid Relief and Economic Security ("CARES") Act of 2020 was signed into law creating new temporary federal programs for unemployment benefits called Pandemic Unemployment Assistance ("PUA")¹ and Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation ("FPUC").² On March 29, 2020, the CNMI Government executed an agreement with the US Secretary of Labor to operate the PUA and FPUC program in accordance to applicable law.³ The CNMI Department of Labor is charged with the responsibility in administering the above-mentioned programs in the CNMI. The CNMI Department of Labor Administrative Hearing Office has been designated to preside over first level appeals of the aforesaid programs.

Upon review of the records, the appeal was timely filed. Accordingly, jurisdiction is established.

III. PROCEDURAL HISTORY & ISSUE

Appellant filed a claim for unemployment benefits under the PUA and FPUC programs. Upon review of Appellant's application and supporting documents, the Department issued its initial determination on September 8, 2020. The Department's determination found the Appellant was not a qualified alien and denied benefits from February 23, 2020 to December 26, 2020. Appellant filed the present appeal on September 10, 2020. Appellant is appealing the denial for the weeks of February 23, 2020 to August 8, 2020. The issue(s) on appeal is whether Appellant is a qualified alien eligible for PUA.

IV. FINDINGS OF FACT

In consideration of the evidence provided and credibility of witness testimony, the undersigned issues the following findings of fact:

¹ See Section 2102 of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136.

² See Section 2104 of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136.

³ Pursuant to Section 2102(h) of the CARES Act of 2020 (Pub. L. 116-136) and 20 CFR § 625.2(r)(1)(ii), the CNMI Governor issued Executive Order No. 2020-09 declaring Hawaii Employment Security Law as the applicable state law in the CNMI. Hawaii state law applies, to the extent it does not conflict with applicable federal law and guidance.

1. Prior to the pandemic, Appellant was employed as a Supervisor in housekeeping at Imperial Pacific International (CNMI), LLC ("Employer") located in Garapan, Saipan. Appellant regularly worked 40 hours per week at an hourly rate of $11.
2. Sometime in February, Appellant's hours were reduced to approximately 28 hours. Starting the week of May 23, 2020, Appellant was furloughed with zero hours. Employer recalled Appellant to temporarily return to work for one week, starting August 8, 2020. Appellant returned to work for that one week, and hasn't been recalled since.
3. The reduction in hours and separation was due to the hotel's closure during the declared public health emergency.
4. On August 17, 2020, Appellant secured other employment and stopped submitting claims for PUA.
5. At the time of employment, Appellant was authorized to work in the CNMI. During the weeks claimed, Appellant possessed a valid Employment Authorization Document ("EAD")⁴ card with the following credentials:
 - a. Date of Birth: October 19, 1981
 - b. USCIS #: 219-247-135
 - c. Category: C09
 - d. Card #: MSC1991312844
 - e. Valid from September 11, 2019 to September 10, 2020.⁵
6. Appellant's EAD Card was renewed with the following credentials:

 - b. USCIS #: 219-247-135
 - c. Category: C09
 - d. Card #: IOE0909304060
 - e. Valid from September 11, 2020 to September 10, 2021.⁶
7. The Department entered Appellant's information into the Systematic Alien Verification for Entitlements (SAVE) database maintained by US Department of Homeland Security, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, Verification Division. This database is used

1 to determine the immigration status of PUA applicants so only those entitled to benefits
2 receive them.

3 8. The SAVE results indicate that Appellant is a non-national of the U.S. that has filed an
4 application with USCIS for an extension, change, or adjustment of status or to obtain
5 employment authorization, but a decision has not yet been made. The results confirm that
6 Appellant's employment authorization is under Category C09.⁷

7 9. Appellant applied for permanent residency in June of 2018. His interview with USCIS
8 was originally schedule on or around March of 2020. Appellant's interview was cancelled
9 due to the COVID-19 public health emergency and closure of government offices. As of 10 the date of the hearing, Appellant's application is still pending.

11 V. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

12 In consideration of the above-stated findings and applicable law, the undersigned issues the
13 following conclusions of law:

14 1. Appellant's employment was affected as a direct result of COVID-19.

15 Pursuant to Section 2102 of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136, there are a number
16 of requirements to meet the eligibility standard of PUA. First, the claimant cannot be qualified
17 for regular unemployment, extended benefits under state or federal law, or pandemic emergency
18 unemployment compensation (PEUC).⁸ Second, the claimant must show that he or she is able and 19 available for work, as defined by Hawaii law, except they are unemployed, partially unemployed,
20 or unable to work or unable for work due to at least one of the following COVID-19 reason
21 identified in Section 2102 (a)(3)(A)(ii)(I) of the CARES Act:

- 22 (a) The individual has been diagnosed with COVID-19 or is experiencing symptoms of 23 COVID-19 and is seeking a medical diagnosis;
- 24 (b) A member of the individual's household has been diagnosed with COVID-19;
- 25 (c) The individual is providing care for a family member or a member of the individual's
26 household who has been diagnosed with COVID-19;
- 27 (d) A child or other person in the household for which the individual has primary 28 caregiving responsibility is unable to attend school or another facility that is closed as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency and such school or facility
care is required for the individual to work;

⁷ Exhibit 3.

⁸ This is not at issue in this case.

- (e) The individual is unable to reach the place of employment because of a quarantine imposed as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency;
- (f) The individual is unable to reach the place of employment because the individual has been advised by a health care provider to quarantine due to concerns related to COVID-19;
- (g) The individual was scheduled to commence employment and does not have a job or is unable to reach the job as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency;
- (h) The individual has become the breadwinner or major support for a household because the health of the household has died as a direct result of COVID-19;
- (i) The individual has to quit his or her job as a direct result of COVID-19;
- (j) The individual's place of employment is closed as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency; or
- (k) The individual is an independent contractor who is unemployed (total or partial) or is unable or unavailable to work because of the COVID-19 public health emergency has severely limited his or her ability to continue performing the customary job.

Based on the evidence and testimony provided, it is clear that Appellant's employment was affected as a direct result of COVID-19. Due to COVID-19, there was an immediate halt in tourism. The lack of tourism greatly impacted the revenue streams of businesses and hotel industries, such as Employer. Due to the lack of tourism and revenue, as well as the public health emergency prompted by COVID-19, Employer had to reduce hours, furlough staff, and close the business. Accordingly, Appellant's employment was directly affected by a COVID-19 reason, indicated above.

2. Appellant is not a qualified alien eligible for PUA.

PUA and FPUC are federal public benefits as defined by 8 USC §1611(c). As a condition of eligibility for any federal public benefit, the claimant must be a "qualified alien" at the time relevant to the claim. 8 USC §1611(a). Pursuant to 8 USC §1641, the term "qualified alien" is:

1. An alien admitted for permanent residence under the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA);
2. An alien granted asylum under § 208 of the INA;
3. A refugee admitted to the US under § 207 of the INA;
4. An alien paroled into the US under § 212(d)(5) of the INA for at least one year;
5. An alien whose deportation is being withheld under § 243(h) of the INA ... or whose removal is being withheld under § 241 (b)(3) of the INA;
6. An alien granted conditional entry pursuant to § 203 (a)(7) of the INA;
7. An alien who is a Cuban or Haitian entrant as defined in § 501(e) of the Refugee Education Assistance Act of 1980; or

1 8. An alien who (or whose child or parent) has been battered or subject to extreme cruelty
2 in the U.S. and otherwise satisfies the requirements of § 431(c) of the Act.

3 Here, Appellant argues he qualifies as a an EAD holder under category F2A, or alien being
4 the spouse of an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence. In support of their argument,
5 Appellant only provides the following documents his EAD cards. When asked for additional 6 documents to establish Appellant's argument, Appellant had no other documents.

7 The undersigned finds that the evidence is insufficient to establish that the Appellant is a
8 qualified alien. Sufficient evidence to establish that Appellant is an alien granted conditional entry
9 pursuant to § 207 (a)(7) of the INA includes: (1) the INS Form I-94 with stamp showing admission
10 under § 203(a)(7) of the INA; (2) INS Form I-688B annotated 274a.12(a)(3); or (3) INF Form I-11 766 annotated A3. No such documents have been provided or admitted into evidence. Notably,
12 the EAD cards indicate that Appellant was authorized to work based on Category C09. Category
13 C09 is a code that USCIS utilizes for applicants pending an adjustment in status. Category C09
14 is not considered a qualified alien. While Appellant may have submitted an application for 15 permanent residence, the application for permanent residency has not been approved. Therefore,
16 Appellant was not a qualified alien at the time of the weeks claimed.

16 VI. ORDER

17 For the reasons stated above, it is ORDERED that:

- 18 1. The CNMI Department of Labor's Determination is AFFIRMED; and
19 2. The Appellant is NOT ELIGIBLE to receive PUA benefits for the period of February
20 23, 2020 to December 26, 2020.

21 Instructions and appeal rights with respect to second level appeals are pending clarification
22 from U.S. Department of Labor. Until then, any party aggrieved by this Order may request a
23 second level appeal with a signed letter to indicating why he or she disagrees with the decision.
24 The letter may be submitted to the Administrative Hearing Office in person (Building #1357,
25 Mednilla Ave) or electronically mailed to hearing@dol.gov.mp. Further action regarding second
26 level appeals will remain pending until further guidance from U.S. Department of Labor.

I. INTRODUCTION

This matter came before the undersigned for an Administrative Hearing on September 28, 2020 at 1:30 p.m. at the Administrative Hearing Office. Due to the ongoing COVID-19 public health emergency, the hearing was held telephonically. Appellant Janice M. Lowe (“Appellant”) was present and self-represented. Appellee CNMI Department of Labor Division of Employment Services – Pandemic Unemployment Assistance program (“Appellee” or “Department”) was present and represented by Director of Employment Services Eugene Tebuteb and PUA Supervisor Jake Maratita. There were no other witnesses¹ who provided testimony at the hearing. The following exhibits have been admitted onto the record:

1. Exhibit 1: Appellant’s Notice of Furloughs (4 pages)
2. Exhibit 2: Appellant’s Forms I-797C Notice of Action (4 pages)
3. Exhibit 3: Appellant’s Employment Authorization Card
4. Exhibit 4: Appellant’s Certificate of Employment
5. Exhibit 5: Department’s SAVE Results

For the reasons stated below, the Department’s Determination dated September 8, 2020 is AFFIRMED. Claimant is not eligible for benefits for the period of March 8, 2020 to December 26, 2020.

¹ Appellant’s Husband, Justin Lowe was present on the line and identified as a potential witness, however, additional testimony from Mr. Lowe was not necessary.

II. JURISDICTION

On March 27, 2020, the Coronavirus Aid Relief and Economic Security ("CARES") Act of 2020 was signed into law creating new temporary federal programs for unemployment benefits called Pandemic Unemployment Assistance ("PUA")² and Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation ("FPUC").³ On March 29, 2020, the CNMI Government executed an agreement with the US Secretary of Labor to operate the PUA and FPUC program in accordance to applicable law.⁴ The CNMI Department of Labor is charged with the responsibility in administering the above-mentioned programs in the CNMI. The CNMI Department of Labor Administrative Hearing Office has been designated to preside over first level appeals of the aforesaid programs.

Upon review of the records, the appeal was timely filed. Accordingly, jurisdiction is established.

III. PROCEDURAL HISTORY & ISSUE

Appellant filed a claim for unemployment benefits under the PUA and FPUC programs. Upon review of Appellant's application and supporting documents, the Department issued its initial determination on September 8, 2020. The Department's determination found the Appellant was not a qualified alien and denied benefits from March 8, 2020 to December 26, 2020. Appellant filed the present appeal on September 11, 2020. Appellant is appealing the denial for the weeks of March 8, 2020 to December 26, 2020. The issue(s) on appeal is whether Appellant is a qualified alien eligible for PUA.

IV. FINDINGS OF FACT

In consideration of the evidence provided and credibility of witness testimony, the undersigned issues the following findings of fact:

³ See Section 2104 of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136.

⁴ Pursuant to Section 2102(h) of the CARES Act of 2020 (Pub. L. 116-136) and 20 CFR § 625.2(r)(1)(ii), the CNMI Governor issued Executive Order No. 2020-09 declaring Hawaii Employment Security Law as the applicable state law in the CNMI. Hawaii state law applies, to the extent it does not conflict with applicable federal law and guidance.

1. Prior to the pandemic, Appellant was employed as a Guest Service Agent in the Food and Beverage Department at Imperial Pacific International (CNMI), LLC ("Employer") located in Garapan, Saipan. Appellant regularly worked 40 hours per week at an hourly rate of $8.28 or annual salary of $17,222.40.⁵
2. Starting February 10, 2020, Appellant's hours were reduced due to the lack of customers. During this time, Appellant utilized her available paid time off to offset the reduction in hours. After March 14, 2020, Appellant stopped working because the business establishment closed. Effective April 6, 2020 to December 31, 2020, Appellant was placed on furlough, with zero hours and zero pay.⁶
3. Appellant has not been recalled into work or otherwise returned to the workforce since March 8, 2020.
4. Appellant entered the CNMI work force as a CNMI Only Transitional Worker ("CW 1"). After getting married in April of 2019, Appellant filed an application with the Department of Homeland Security, US Citizenship and Immigration Services ("USCIS") to change her status. Specifically, on July 29, 2019, Appellant filed an application for permanent residency, a spousal visa, and employment authorization. The applications were received August 8, 2019 and multiple Notice of Actions were subsequently issued.⁷
5. The above-stated applications or petitions for permanent residency and a spousal visa are currently pending with USCIS. While the application is pending, Appellant was granted employment authorization. Appellant possessed a valid Employment Authorization Document ("EAD")⁸ card with the following credentials:
 - a. Date of Birth: January 2, 1984
 - b. USCIS #: 219-280-578
 - c. Category: C09
 - d. Card #: MSC1991484202
 - e. Valid from October 4, 2019 to October 3, 2020.⁹

⁵ Exhibit 4.

⁷ Exhibit 2.

⁸ An EAD is a work permit that allows noncitizens to work in the United States.

⁹ Exhibit 3.

1 6. The Department entered Appellant's information into the Systematic Alien Verification
2 for Entitlements (SAVE) database maintained by USCIS, Verification Division. This
3 database is used to determine the immigration status of PUA applicants so only those
4 entitled to benefits receive them.

5 7. The SAVE results indicate that Appellant is a non-national of the U.S. who has filed an
6 application with USCIS for an extension, change, or adjustment of status or to obtain
7 employment authorization, but a decision has not yet been made. The results confirm that
8 Appellant's employment authorization is under Category C09.¹⁰

9 V. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

10 In consideration of the above-stated findings and applicable law, the undersigned issues the
11 following conclusions of law:

12 1. Appellant's employment was affected as a direct result of COVID-19.

13 Pursuant to Section 2102 of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136, there are a number
14 of requirements to meet the eligibility standard of PUA. First, the claimant cannot be qualified
15 for regular unemployment, extended benefits under state or federal law, or pandemic emergency
16 unemployment compensation (PEUC).¹¹ Second, the claimant must show that he or she is able 17 and available for work, as defined by Hawaii law, except they are unemployed, partially
18 unemployed, or unable to work or unable for work due to at least one of the following COVID-
19 19 reason identified in Section 2102 (a)(3)(A)(ii)(I) of the CARES Act:

- 20 (a) The individual has been diagnosed with COVID-19 or is experiencing symptoms of 21 COVID-19 and is seeking a medical diagnosis;
- 22 (b) A member of the individual's household has been diagnosed with COVID-19;
- 23 (c) The individual is providing care for a family member or a member of the individual's
24 household who has been diagnosed with COVID-19;
- 25 (d) A child or other person in the household for which the individual has primary
26 caregiving responsibility is unable to attend school or another facility that is closed as
27 a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency and such school or facility
28 care is required for the individual to work;
- (e) The individual is unable to reach the place of employment because of a quarantine
imposed as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency;

¹⁰ Exhibit 5.

¹¹ This is not at issue in this case.

- (f) The individual is unable to reach the place of employment because the individual has been advised by a health care provider to quarantine due to concerns related to COVID-19;
- (g) The individual was scheduled to commence employment and does not have a job or is unable to reach the job as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency;
- (h) The individual has become the breadwinner or major support for a household because the health of the household has died as a direct result of COVID-19;
- (i) The individual has to quit his or her job as a direct result of COVID-19;
- (j) The individual's place of employment is closed as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency; or
- (k) The individual is an independent contractor who is unemployed (total or partial) or is unable or unavailable to work because of the COVID-19 public health emergency has severely limited his or her ability to continue performing the customary job.

Based on the evidence and testimony provided, it is clear that Appellant's employment was affected as a direct result of COVID-19. Due to COVID-19, there was an immediate halt in tourism. The lack of tourism greatly impacted the revenue streams of businesses and hotel industries, such as Employer. Due to the lack of tourism and revenue, as well as the public health emergency prompted by COVID-19, Employer had to reduce hours, furlough staff, and close the business. Accordingly, Appellant's employment was directly affected by a COVID-19 reason, indicated above.

2. Appellant is not a qualified alien eligible for PUA.

PUA and FPUC are federal public benefits as defined by 8 USC §1611(c). As a condition of eligibility for any federal public benefit, the claimant must be a "qualified alien" at the time relevant to the claim. 8 USC §1611(a). Pursuant to 8 USC §1641, the term "qualified alien" is:

1. An alien admitted for permanent residence under the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA);
2. An alien granted asylum under § 208 of the INA;
3. A refugee admitted to the US under § 207 of the INA;
4. An alien paroled into the US under § 212(d)(5) of the INA for at least one year;
5. An alien whose deportation is being withheld under § 243(h) of the INA ... or whose removal is being withheld under § 241 (b)(3) of the INA;
6. An alien granted conditional entry pursuant to § 203 (a)(7) of the INA;
7. An alien who is a Cuban or Haitian entrant as defined in § 501(e) of the Refugee Education Assistance Act of 1980; or
8. An alien who (or whose child or parent) has been battered or subject to extreme cruelty in the U.S. and otherwise satisfies the requirements of § 431(c) of the Act.

1 Here, Appellant argues she qualifies as an “alien paroled into the US under §212(d)(5) of the 2 INA for at least one year.” In support of their argument, Appellant only provides the above-
3 mentioned Notices of Action and EAD card.¹² When asked for additional documents to establish 4 Appellant’s argument, Appellant had no other documents.

5 The undersigned finds that the evidence is insufficient to establish that the Appellant is a
6 qualified alien. Sufficient evidence to establish that Appellant is an “alien paroled into the US
7 under ... INA for at least one year” include the INS Form 1-94 or Form I512L with stamp showing
8 admission for at least one year under §212(d)(5) of the INA. No such documents have been 9 provided or admitted into evidence. Notably, the EAD card and notices indicate that Appellant
10 was authorized to work based on Category C09. Category C09 is a code that USCIS utilizes for 11 applicants pending an adjustment in status. Category C09 is not considered a qualified alien.
12 While Appellant may have submitted an application for permanent residence and a spousal visa, 13 said applications have not been approved. Therefore, Appellant was not a qualified alien at the 14 time of the weeks claimed.

14 VI. ORDER

15 For the reasons stated above, it is ORDERED that:

- 16 1. The CNMI Department of Labor’s Determination is AFFIRMED; and
- 17 2. The Appellant is NOT ELIGIBLE to receive PUA benefits for the period of March 8,
18 2020 to December 26, 2020.

19 Instructions and appeal rights with respect to second level appeals are pending clarification
20 from U.S. Department of Labor. Until then, any party aggrieved by this Order may request a
21 second level appeal with a signed letter indicating why he or she disagrees with the decision. The
22 letter may be submitted to the Administrative Hearing Office in person (Building #1357, Mednilla

24 appeals will remain pending until further guidance from U.S. Department of Labor.

IV. FINDINGS OF FACT

In consideration of the evidence provided and credibility of witness testimony, the undersigned issues the following findings of fact:

1. Prior to the pandemic, Appellant was employed as a Case Worker at Pacific Fertility Institute ("Employer") located in Puerto Rico, Saipan. Appellant regularly worked 40 hours per week at a rate of $10 per hour.⁵
2. On March 23, 2020, Employer temporarily closed its doors in response to the CNMI Governor's executive directive. Appellant was paid her customary hours and customer rate up until April 6, 2020.
3. Due to the economic impact of COVID-19 and lack of customers, Employer did not reopen for business. Effective April 6, 2020, Appellant was furloughed with zero hours and zero pay.⁶
4. Appellant has not been recalled into work or otherwise returned to the workforce since March 23, 2020.⁷
5. Appellant applied for permanent residency in October of 2019. Her application for permanent residency is still pending with the Department of Homeland Security, US Citizenship and Immigration Services ("USCIS").
6. In light of the pending application, Appellant was granted employment authorization. Appellant possesssd a valid Employment Authorization Document ("EAD")⁸ card with the following credentials:

⁹ Exhibit 3.

1 database is used to determine the immigration status of PUA applicants so only those
2 entitled to benefits receive them.

- 3 8. The SAVE results indicate that Appellant is a non-national of the U.S. who is admitted
4 for a specific reason and for a limited period of time. The results further indicate that
5 Appellant is temporarily allowed to work. The results confirm that Appellant's
6 employment authorization is under Category C09.¹⁰

7 V. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

8 In consideration of the above-stated findings and applicable law, the undersigned issues the
9 following conclusions of law:

10 1. Appellant's employment was affected as a direct result of COVID-19.

11 Pursuant to Section 2102 of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136, there are a number
12 of requirements to meet the eligibility standard of PUA. First, the claimant cannot be qualified
13 for regular unemployment, extended benefits under state or federal law, or pandemic emergency
14 unemployment compensation (PEUC).¹¹ Second, the claimant must show that he or she is able
15 and available for work, as defined by Hawaii law, except they are unemployed, partially
16 unemployed, or unable to work or unable for work due to at least one of the following COVID-
17 19 reason identified in Section 2102 (a)(3)(A)(ii)(I) of the CARES Act:

- 18 (a) The individual has been diagnosed with COVID-19 or is experiencing symptoms of
19 COVID-19 and is seeking a medical diagnosis;
20 (b) A member of the individual's household has been diagnosed with COVID-19;
21 (c) The individual is providing care for a family member or a member of the individual's
22 household who has been diagnosed with COVID-19;
23 (d) A child or other person in the household for which the individual has primary
24 caregiving responsibility is unable to attend school or another facility that is closed as
25 a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency and such school or facility
26 care is required for the individual to work;
27 (e) The individual is unable to reach the place of employment because of a quarantine
28 imposed as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency;
(f) The individual is unable to reach the place of employment because the individual has been advised by a health care provider to quarantine due to concerns related to
COVID-19;
(g) The individual was scheduled to commence employment and does not have a job or is unable to reach the job as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency;

¹⁰ Exhibit 6.

¹¹ This is not at issue in this case.

- (h) The individual has become the breadwinner or major support for a household because the health of the household has died as a direct result of COVID-19;
- (i) The individual has to quit his or her job as a direct result of COVID-19;
- (j) The individual's place of employment is closed as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency; or
- (k) The individual is an independent contractor who is unemployed (total or partial) or is unable or unavailable to work because of the COVID-19 public health emergency has severely limited his or her ability to continue performing the customary job.

Based on the evidence and testimony provided, it is clear that Appellant's employment was affected as a direct result of COVID-19. Due to COVID-19, there was an immediate halt in tourism. The lack of tourism greatly impacted the revenue streams of businesses, such as Employer. Due to the lack of tourism and revenue, as well as the public health emergency prompted by COVID-19, Employer had to reduce hours, furlough staff, and close the business. While Appellant last worked in March 23, 2020, Appellant testified that she received her full and customary pay until April 6, 2020. Accordingly, Appellant's employment was directly affected by a COVID-19 reason, indicated above, starting April 6, 2020.

2. Appellant is not a qualified alien eligible for PUA.

PUA and FPUC are federal public benefits as defined by 8 USC §1611(c). As a condition of eligibility for any federal public benefit, the claimant must be a "qualified alien" at the time relevant to the claim. 8 USC §1611(a). Pursuant to 8 USC §1641, the term "qualified alien" is:

1. An alien admitted for permanent residence under the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA);
2. An alien granted asylum under § 208 of the INA;
3. A refugee admitted to the US under § 207 of the INA;
4. An alien paroled into the US under § 212(d)(5) of the INA for at least one year;
5. An alien whose deportation is being withheld under § 243(h) of the INA ... or whose removal is being withheld under § 241 (b)(3) of the INA;
6. An alien granted conditional entry pursuant to § 203 (a)(7) of the INA;
7. An alien who is a Cuban or Haitian entrant as defined in § 501(e) of the Refugee Education Assistance Act of 1980; or
8. An alien who (or whose child or parent) has been battered or subject to extreme cruelty in the U.S. and otherwise satisfies the requirements of § 431(c) of the Act.

Here, Appellant makes no argument or attempt to identify which provision of the qualified alien definition she fits into. Further, in support of her general position that she qualifies,

1 Appellant simply provided her EAD card. When asked for additional evidence to establish
2 Appellant's argument, Appellant had no other documents.¹²

3 Based on the evidence and testimony provided, Appellant does not meet the definition of a
4 qualified alien. First, the SAVE results indicate that Appellant is an EAD, Category C09.
5 Category C09 is a code that USCIS utilizes for applicants pending an adjustment in status.
6 Category C09 is not considered a qualified alien. Second, Appellant provides no other evidence
7 to contradict or rebut the SAVE results. Third, while Appellant may have submitted an application
8 for permanent residence, said applications have not been approved. Therefore, Appellant was not 9 a qualified alien at the time of the weeks claimed.

10 VI. ORDER

11 For the reasons stated above, it is ORDERED that:

- 12 1. The CNMI Department of Labor's Determination is AFFIRMED; and
- 13 2. The Appellant is NOT ELIGIBLE to receive PUA benefits for the period of March 24,
14 2020 to December 26, 2020.

15 Instructions and appeal rights with respect to second level appeals are pending clarification
16 from U.S. Department of Labor. Until then, any party aggrieved by this Order may request a
17 second level appeal with a signed letter indicating why he or she disagrees with the decision. The
18 letter may be submitted to the Administrative Hearing Office in person (Building #1357, Mednilla
19 Ave) or electronically mailed to hearing@dol.gov.mp. Further action regarding second level
20 appeals will remain pending until further guidance from U.S. Department of Labor.

21 So ordered this 30th day of September, 2020.

27 ¹² As stated on the record, Appellant submitted a copy of a shrunken, blurry, illegible copy of what appears to be a 28 USCIS Notice of Action. Appellant could not provide a legible copy to which the undersigned and opposing party could review and test for authenticity, trustworthiness, or relevance. Additionally, Appellant made no argument as to what that document purports to say. Ultimately, Appellant did not request to admit this document into the record.

I. INTRODUCTION

This matter came before the undersigned for an Administrative Hearing on October 1, 2020 at 1:30 p.m. at the Administrative Hearing Office. Due to the ongoing COVID-19 public health emergency, the hearing was held telephonically. Appellant Zenaida A. Marcelo ("Appellant") was present and self-represented. Appellee CNMI Department of Labor Division of Employment Services – Pandemic Unemployment Assistance program ("Appellee" or "Department") was present and represented by PUA Supervisor Jake Maratita and Labor Certification Worker, Denis Cabrera. There were no other witnesses who provided testimony during the hearing.¹

Exhibits:

1. Exhibit 1: Department's SAVE Results
2. Exhibit 2: Appellant's I-797A Notice of Action

For the reasons stated below, the Department's Determination dated August 25, 2020 is AFFIRMED. Claimant is not eligible for benefits for the period of June 14, 2020 to December 26, 2020.

II. JURISDICTION

On March 27, 2020, the Coronavirus Aid Relief and Economic Security ("CARES") Act of 2020 was signed into law creating new temporary federal programs for unemployment benefits

¹ Appellant's husband, Bernardine Marcelo, was present on the line but did not provide testimony.

1 called Pandemic Unemployment Assistance ("PUA")² and Federal Pandemic Unemployment
2 Compensation ("FPUC").³ On March 29, 2020, the CNMI Government executed an agreement
3 with the US Secretary of Labor to operate the PUA and FPUC program in accordance with 4 applicable law.⁴ The CNMI Department of Labor is charged with the responsibility in 5 administering the above-mentioned programs in the CNMI as agents of US Department of Labor.
6 The CNMI Department of Labor Administrative Hearing Office has been designated to preside
7 over first level appeals of the aforesaid programs.

8 Upon review of the records, the appeal was timely filed. Accordingly, jurisdiction is
9 established.

10 III. PROCEDURAL HISTORY & ISSUE

11 Appellant filed a claim for unemployment benefits under the PUA and FPUC programs. Upon 12 review of Appellant's application and supporting documents, the Department issued its 13 determination on August 25, 2020. The Department's determination found the Appellant was not 14 a qualified alien and denied benefits effective June 14, 2020 to December 26, 2020. Appellant
15 filed the present appeal on September 16, 2020. Appellant is appealing the denial for the entire 16 period. The issue(s) on appeal is: (1) whether the appeal is timely filed; and (2) whether Appellant is a qualified alien eligible for PUA.⁵

17 IV. FINDINGS OF FACT

18 In consideration of the evidence provided and credibility of witness testimony, the 19 undersigned issues the following findings of fact:

- 20 1. Prior to the pandemic, Appellant was employed as a second grade teacher at Green
21 Meadow School ("Employer") located in Chalan Kiya, Saipan. Appellant regularly
22 worked 20 hours every two weeks at a rate of $7.70 per hour.

25 ² See Section 2102 of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136.

26 ³ See Section 2104 of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136.

27 ⁴ Pursuant to Section 2102(h) of the CARES Act of 2020 (Pub. L. 116-136) and 20 CFR § 625.2(r)(1)(ii), the CNMI
Governor issued Executive Order No. 2020-09 declaring Hawaii Employment Security Law as the applicable state law in the CNMI. Hawaii state law applies, to the extent it does not conflict with applicable federal law and guidance.

28 ⁵ During the Administrative Hearing, Appellant testified to potential overpayment issues. Since that issue was not included in the Notice of Hearing, the undersigned declines to make any findings or conclusions with respect to overpayments. However, this matter shall be referred to the Benefit Payment Control Unit for further investigation.

2. From the second week of March to May 2020, Employer was closed. However, Appellant was able to telework or work from home.
3. Despite COVID-19, Appellant worked the same number of hours. Further, when the school reopened on August 6, 2020, Appellant's number of hours increased to 30 hours a week.
4. Appellant holds an H1B Visa, valid from April 1, 2020 to March 31, 2023.⁶ After Appellant's H1 Visa was approved, Appellant's pay increased to $15.45 per hour.
5. The Department entered Appellant's information into the Systematic Alien Verification for Entitlements (SAVE) database maintained by USCIS, Verification Division. This database is used to determine the immigration status of PUA applicants so only those entitled to benefits receive them.
6. The SAVE results indicate that Appellant is a non-national of the U.S. who is admitted for a specific reason and for a limited period of time. The results further indicate that Appellant is temporarily allowed to work.⁷
7. On September 4, 2020, Appellant filed her appeal on Guam. On September 7, 2020, Guam instructed Appellant that she needed to file her appeal in Saipan. Appellant did not immediately file her appeal because she was taking online classes, five days a week from 8:00 am to 2:30pm.

V. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

In consideration of the above-stated findings and applicable law, the undersigned issues the following conclusions of law:

1. For good cause shown, the filing appeal shall be extended to thirty days. Appellant's appeal is timely.

Generally, an appeal should be filed within ten days after the Notice of Determination was issued or served to the claimant. However, the Department may extend the period to thirty days by a showing of good cause.⁸ Good cause means: (1) illness or disability; (2) keeping an appointment for a job interview; (3) attending a funeral of a family member; and (4) any other reason which would prevent a reasonable person from complying as directed.⁹

⁷ Exhibit 1.

⁸ Hl. Rev. Statute § 383-38(a).

⁹ HAR § 12-5-81(j).

1 Here, Appellant received the determination on August 25, 2020. Appellant mistakenly filed
2 her appeal in Guam on September 4, 2020. This mistake was due to a technical error by the
3 Department's online portal which generated a determination using Guam's Department of Labor
4 letterhead and instructions. On September 7, 2020, Appellant was instructed that she had to file
5 her appeal with the CNMI Department of Labor, Administrative Hearing Office. Appellant did
6 not file her appeal for another 9 days, September 16, 2020. Appellant explained that she did not
7 file because she was taking an online class, which meets 8:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., daily. The daily
8 classes are not a reasonable justification because the Administrative Hearing Office is open from 9 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., Monday to Friday. Additionally, instructions are posted on the CNMI
10 Department of Labor website and email filing was an available option. However, in consideration 11 of the technical errors and inconsistent filing instructions, the undersigned finds good cause to 12 extend the filing period to 30 days. Accordingly, Appellant's filing is timely.

13 2. Appellant's employment was not affected as a direct result of COVID-19 because 14 she had the ability to telework their customary hours with pay.

15 Pursuant to Section 2102 of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136, there are a number
16 of requirements to meet the eligibility standard of PUA. First, the claimant cannot be qualified
17 for regular unemployment, extended benefits under state or federal law, or pandemic emergency
18 unemployment compensation (PEUC).¹⁰ Second, the claimant must show that he or she is able 19 and available for work, as defined by Hawaii law, except they are unemployed, partially
20 unemployed, or unable to work or unable for work due to at least one of the following COVID-
21 19 reason identified in Section 2102 (a)(3)(A)(ii)(I) of the CARES Act:

- 22 (a) The individual has been diagnosed with COVID-19 or is experiencing symptoms of 23 COVID-19 and is seeking a medical diagnosis;
- 24 (b) A member of the individual's household has been diagnosed with COVID-19;
- 25 (c) The individual is providing care for a family member or a member of the individual's
26 household who has been diagnosed with COVID-19;
- 27 (d) A child or other person in the household for which the individual has primary 28 caregiving responsibility is unable to attend school or another facility that is closed as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency and such school or facility
care is required for the individual to work;
- (e) The individual is unable to reach the place of employment because of a quarantine
imposed as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency;

¹⁰ This is not at issue in this case.

- (f) The individual is unable to reach the place of employment because the individual has been advised by a health care provider to quarantine due to concerns related to COVID-19;
- (g) The individual was scheduled to commence employment and does not have a job or is unable to reach the job as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency;
- (h) The individual has become the breadwinner or major support for a household because the health of the household has died as a direct result of COVID-19;
- (i) The individual has to quit his or her job as a direct result of COVID-19;
- (j) The individual's place of employment is closed as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency; or
- (k) The individual is an independent contractor who is unemployed (total or partial) or is unable or unavailable to work because of the COVID-19 public health emergency has severely limited his or her ability to continue performing the customary job.

Generally, PUA is not available to an individual who has the ability to telework for their customary work hours with pay. Based on the evidence and testimony provided, it is clear that Appellant's employment was not affected as a direct result of COVID-19. While Appellant testified that her employer closed, Appellant was offered telework for the same number of hours. Further, when the school reopened in August 6, 2020—Appellant worked even more hours compared to her employment prior to COVID-19. Since Appellant was given the opportunity to telework and the number of work hours and pay were unchanged, Appellant's employment was not directly affected by a COVID-19 reason, indicated above.

3. Appellant is not a qualified alien eligible for PUA.

PUA and FPUC are federal public benefits¹¹ available to citizens of the United States, District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, U.S. Virgin Islands, the CNMI, Guam, Republic of Palau, the Federated States of Micronesia, American Samoa, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, and qualified aliens who reside and work in the CNMI. As a condition of eligibility for any public benefit, any qualified alien must meet the statutory definition during the work weeks that unemployment benefits are claimed. 8 USC §1611(a). Pursuant to 8 USC §1641, the term "qualified alien" is:

1. An alien admitted for permanent residence under the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA);
2. An alien granted asylum under § 208 of the INA;
3. A refugee admitted to the US under § 207 of the INA;

¹¹ See 8 USC § 1611(c).

4. An alien paroled into the US under § 212(d)(5) of the INA for at least one year;
5. An alien whose deportation is being withheld under § 243(h) of the INA ... or whose removal is being withheld under § 241 (b)(3) of the INA;
6. An alien granted conditional entry pursuant to § 203 (a)(7) of the INA;
7. An alien who is a Cuban or Haitian entrant as defined in § 501(e) of the Refugee Education Assistance Act of 1980; or
8. An alien who (or whose child or parent) has been battered or subject to extreme cruelty in the U.S. and otherwise satisfies the requirements of § 431(c) of the Act.

Here, Appellant makes no argument or attempt to identify which provision of the qualified alien definition she fits into. Further, in support of her general position that she qualifies, Appellant simply provided an I-797A Approval Notice, which indicates that she was approved for an H-1B visa. When asked for additional evidence to establish Appellant's argument, Appellant had no other documents. When asked about each provision of the qualified alien definition, Appellant admits that she does not meet the definition. Based on the evidence and testimony provided, Appellant does not meet the definition of a qualified alien.

VI. ORDER

For the reasons stated above, it is ORDERED that:

1. The CNMI Department of Labor's Determination is AFFIRMED; and
2. The Appellant is NOT ELIGIBLE to receive PUA benefits for the period of June 14, 2020 to December 26, 2020.

Instructions and appeal rights with respect to second level appeals are pending clarification from U.S. Department of Labor. Until then, any party aggrieved by this Order may request a second level appeal with a signed letter indicating why he or she disagrees with the decision. The letter may be submitted to the Administrative Hearing Office in person (Building #1357, Mednilla Ave) or electronically mailed to hearing@dol.gov.mp. Further action regarding second level appeals will remain pending until further guidance from U.S. Department of Labor.

So ordered this 9th day of October, 2020.

I. INTRODUCTION

This matter came before the undersigned for an Administrative Hearing on October 1, 2020 at 9:00 a.m. at the Administrative Hearing Office. Due to the ongoing COVID-19 public health emergency, the hearing was held telephonically. Appellant Yangsong Z. Jackson ("Appellant") was present and self-represented. Appellee CNMI Department of Labor Division of Employment Services – Pandemic Unemployment Assistance program ("Appellee" or "Department") was present and represented by PUA Supervisor Jake Maratita and Labor Certification Worker, Denis Cabrera. Interpreter Brandon Doggett was also present.

Appellant's Witnesses:

1. Gregory Jackson (Husband); and
2. Tony M. Sablan (Document Handler for Appellant's USCIS petitions).

Exhibits:

1. Exhibit 1: Appellant's Employment Authorization Card; and
2. Department's Save Results.

For the reasons stated below, the Department's Determination dated September 15, 2020 is MODIFIED.¹ Claimant is not eligible for benefits for the period of February 9, 2020 to December 26, 2020.

¹ As further discussed below, the undersigned finds the determination denying benefits is proper. However, the Determination is modified to include an end date of the disqualification period.

II. JURISDICTION

On March 27, 2020, the Coronavirus Aid Relief and Economic Security ("CARES") Act of 2020 was signed into law creating new temporary federal programs for unemployment benefits called Pandemic Unemployment Assistance ("PUA")² and Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation ("FPUC").³ On March 29, 2020, the CNMI Government executed an agreement with the US Secretary of Labor to operate the PUA and FPUC program in accordance to applicable law.⁴ The CNMI Department of Labor is charged with the responsibility in administering the above-mentioned programs in the CNMI. The CNMI Department of Labor Administrative Hearing Office has been designated to preside over first level appeals of the aforesaid programs.

Upon review of the records, the appeal was timely filed. Accordingly, jurisdiction is established.

III. PROCEDURAL HISTORY & ISSUE

Appellant filed a claim for unemployment benefits under the PUA and FPUC programs. Upon review of Appellant's application and supporting documents, the Department issued its initial determination on September 15, 2020. The Department's determination found the Appellant was not a qualified alien and denied benefits effective February 9, 2020. Appellant filed the present appeal on September 17, 2020. Appellant is appealing the denial for the entire period, effective February 9, 2020. The issue(s) on appeal is whether Appellant is a qualified alien eligible for PUA.

IV. FINDINGS OF FACT

In consideration of the evidence provided and credibility of witness testimony, the undersigned issues the following findings of fact:

³ See Section 2104 of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136.

⁴ Pursuant to Section 2102(h) of the CARES Act of 2020 (Pub. L. 116-136) and 20 CFR § 625.2(r)(1)(ii), the CNMI Governor issued Executive Order No. 2020-09 declaring Hawaii Employment Security Law as the applicable state law in the CNMI. Hawaii state law applies, to the extent it does not conflict with applicable federal law and guidance.

1. Prior to the pandemic, Appellant was employed as a Table Supervisor at Best Sunshine Casino ("Employer") located in Garapan, Saipan. Appellant regularly worked 40 hours per week at a rate of $17 per hour.
2. On March 17, 2020, Employer temporarily closed its doors in response to the CNMI Governor's executive directive regarding the public health emergency. Due to the economic impact of COVID-19 and lack of customers, Employer did not reopen for business.
3. Appellant has not been recalled into work or otherwise returned to the workforce since March 17, 2020.
4. Appellant applied for permanent residency in June 26, 2017. Her application for permanent residency is still pending with the Department of Homeland Security, US Citizenship and Immigration Services ("USCIS").
5. In light of the pending application, Appellant was granted employment authorization. Appellant possessed a valid Employment Authorization Document ("EAD")⁵ card with the following credentials:
 - a. Date of Birth: September 5, 1975
 - b. USCIS #: 200-865-467
 - c. Category: C09
 - d. Card #: MSC1990114200

6. The Department entered Appellant's information into the Systematic Alien Verification for Entitlements (SAVE) database maintained by USCIS, Verification Division. This database is used to determine the immigration status of PUA applicants so only those entitled to benefits receive them.
7. The SAVE results indicate that Appellant is a non-national of the U.S. who is admitted for a specific reason and for a limited period of time. The results further indicate that Appellant is temporarily allowed to work. The results confirm that Appellant's employment authorization is under Category C09.⁷

V. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

In consideration of the above-stated findings and applicable law, the undersigned issues the following conclusions of law:

1. Appellant's employment was affected as a direct result of COVID-19.

Pursuant to Section 2102 of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136, there are a number of requirements to meet the eligibility standard of PUA. First, the claimant cannot be qualified for regular unemployment, extended benefits under state or federal law, or pandemic emergency unemployment compensation (PEUC).⁸ Second, the claimant must show that he or she is able and available for work, as defined by Hawaii law, except they are unemployed, partially unemployed, or unable to work or unable for work due to at least one of the following COVID-19 reason identified in Section 2102 (a)(3)(A)(ii)(I) of the CARES Act:

- (a) The individual has been diagnosed with COVID-19 or is experiencing symptoms of COVID-19 and is seeking a medical diagnosis;
- (b) A member of the individual's household has been diagnosed with COVID-19;
- (c) The individual is providing care for a family member or a member of the individual's household who has been diagnosed with COVID-19;
- (d) A child or other person in the household for which the individual has primary caregiving responsibility is unable to attend school or another facility that is closed as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency and such school or facility care is required for the individual to work;
- (e) The individual is unable to reach the place of employment because of a quarantine imposed as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency;
- (f) The individual is unable to reach the place of employment because the individual has been advised by a health care provider to quarantine due to concerns related to COVID-19;
- (g) The individual was scheduled to commence employment and does not have a job or is unable to reach the job as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency;
- (h) The individual has become the breadwinner or major support for a household because the health of the household has died as a direct result of COVID-19;
- (i) The individual has to quit his or her job as a direct result of COVID-19;
- (j) The individual's place of employment is closed as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency; or
- (k) The individual is an independent contractor who is unemployed (total or partial) or is unable or unavailable to work because of the COVID-19 public health emergency has severely limited his or her ability to continue performing the customary job.

⁸ This is not at issue in this case.

1 Based on the evidence and testimony provided, it is clear that Appellant's employment was
2 affected as a direct result of COVID-19. Notably, Appellant failed to show how her employment
3 was affected back to February 9, 2020. However, on March 17, 2020, Employer closed the 4 business and has yet to reopen. Due to COVID-19, there was an immediate halt in tourism. The 5 lack of tourism greatly impacted the revenue streams of businesses, such as Employer. Due to the 6 lack of tourism and revenue, as well as the public health emergency prompted by COVID-19,
7 Employer had to close the business. During this time, employees like Appellant received zero
8 work and zero pay. Accordingly, Appellant's employment was directly affected by a COVID-19
9 reason, indicated above.

10 2. Appellant is not a qualified alien eligible for PUA.

11 PUA and FPUC are federal public benefits as defined by 8 USC §1611(c). As a condition of
12 eligibility for any federal public benefit, the claimant must be a "qualified alien" at the time
13 relevant to the claim. 8 USC §1611(a). Pursuant to 8 USC §1641, the term "qualified alien" is:

- 14 1. An alien admitted for permanent residence under the Immigration and Nationality Act
15 (INA);
- 16 2. An alien granted asylum under § 208 of the INA;
- 17 3. A refugee admitted to the US under § 207 of the INA;
- 18 4. An alien paroled into the US under § 212(d)(5) of the INA for at least one year;
- 19 5. An alien whose deportation is being withheld under § 243(h) of the INA ... or whose 20 removal is being withheld under § 241 (b)(3) of the INA;
- 21 6. An alien granted conditional entry pursuant to § 203 (a)(7) of the INA;
- 22 7. An alien who is a Cuban or Haitian entrant as defined in § 501(e) of the Refugee
23 Education Assistance Act of 1980; or
- 24 8. An alien who (or whose child or parent) has been battered or subject to extreme cruelty
25 in the U.S. and otherwise satisfies the requirements of § 431(c) of the Act.

26 Here, Appellant makes no argument or attempt to identify which provision of the qualified
27 alien definition she fits into. Further, in support of her general position that she qualifies,
28 Appellant simply provided her EAD card. When asked for additional evidence to establish Appellant's argument, Appellant had no other documents. Appellant simply argued that she is legally present in the CNMI, has been paying local taxes, and authorized to work.

Based on the evidence and testimony provided, Appellant does not meet the definition of a qualified alien. First, the SAVE results indicate that Appellant is an EAD, Category C09.
Category C09 is a code that USCIS utilizes for applicants pending an adjustment in status.

1 Category C09 is not considered a qualified alien. Second, Appellant provides no other evidence
2 to contradict or rebut the SAVE results. In fact, testimony from Appellant and Witness Sablan
3 indicate that Appellant only has a pending application for permanent residency. That application
4 has not been approved or granted. There are no other applications that have been granted.
5 Accordingly, until approval or other showing, Appellant is not a qualified alien. More
6 importantly, Appellant was not a qualified alien at the time of the weeks she is claiming PUA benefits.

7 VI. ORDER

8 For the reasons stated above, it is ORDERED that:

- 9 1. The CNMI Department of Labor's Determination is AFFIRMED; and
10 2. The Appellant is NOT ELIGIBLE to receive PUA benefits for the period of February
11 9, 2020 to December 26, 2020.

12 Instructions and appeal rights with respect to second level appeals are pending clarification
13 from U.S. Department of Labor. Until then, any party aggrieved by this Order may request a
14 second level appeal with a signed letter indicating why he or she disagrees with the decision. The
15 letter may be submitted to the Administrative Hearing Office in person (Building #1357, Mednilla
16 Ave) or electronically mailed to hearing@dol.gov.mp. Further action regarding second level
17 appeals will remain pending until further guidance from U.S. Department of Labor.

18 So ordered this 9th day of October, 2020.

This matter came for an online Administrative Hearing on October 7, 2020 at 9:00 a.m. at the Administrative Hearing Office. Complainant Evangeline S. Dela Cruz (“Complainant”) failed to appear.¹ Respondent Marianas Health Services, Inc. (“Respondent”) was present and represented by Director of Operations Maria Ana Castro and Finance Director Arlene Lizama. The Department’s Enforcement, Monitoring, and Compliance Section (“Enforcement”) was also present and represented by investigator Jerrick Cruz.

On the evening of October 5, 2020, Complainant filed an untimely request to continue the Administrative Hearing because she is in the Philippines and did not have internet access. While undersigned recognizes that Complainant was required to depart the CNMI because her CW-1 permit expired, it is unclear whether Complainant will return to the CNMI. Notably, the Administrative Hearing Office only has jurisdiction within the CNMI and cannot conduct hearings on foreign land. A continuance would not cure these deficiencies. Further, a continuance would create an undue burden and prejudice Respondent in having to defend against an absent or unavailable Complainant. Accordingly, Complainant’s request for a continuance is DENIED.

Considering Complainant’s absence, Respondent moved for Default Judgment. Pursuant to NMIAC § 80-20.1-480(1), “[e]xcept for good cause shown, failure of a party to appear at a hearing after timely being served notice to appear shall be deemed to constitute a waiver of any

I. INTRODUCTION

This matter came before the undersigned for an Administrative Hearing on October 6, 2020 at 9:00 a.m. at the Administrative Hearing Office. Due to the ongoing COVID-19 public health emergency, the hearing was held telephonically. Appellant Marcelo V. Masilungan ("Appellant") was present and self-represented. Appellee CNMI Department of Labor Division of Employment Services – Pandemic Unemployment Assistance program ("Appellee" or "Department") was present and represented by PUA Supervisor Jake Maratita and Labor Certification Worker, Dennis Cabrera. There were no other witnesses who gave testimony at the hearing.

Exhibits:

1. Exhibit 1: Appellant's Letter w/ Copy of E2 Visa and EAD Card, dated September 3, 2020
2. Exhibit 2: Department's Determination, dated September 15, 2020
3. Exhibit 3: Department's Save Results.

For the reasons stated below, the Department's Determination dated September 15, 2020 is AFFIRMED. Claimant is not eligible for benefits for the period of March 15, 2020 to December 26, 2020.

II. JURISDICTION

On March 27, 2020, the Coronavirus Aid Relief and Economic Security ("CARES") Act of 2020 was signed into law creating new temporary federal programs for unemployment benefits

1 called Pandemic Unemployment Assistance ("PUA")¹ and Federal Pandemic Unemployment
2 Compensation ("FPUC").² On March 29, 2020, the CNMI Government executed an agreement
3 with the US Secretary of Labor to operate the PUA and FPUC program in accordance to 4 applicable law.³ The CNMI Department of Labor is charged with the responsibility in
5 administering the above-mentioned programs in the CNMI. The CNMI Department of Labor
6 Administrative Hearing Office has been designated to preside over first level appeals of the 7 aforesaid programs.

8 Upon review of the records, the appeal was timely filed. Accordingly, jurisdiction is
9 established.

10 III. PROCEDURAL HISTORY & ISSUE

11 Appellant filed a claim for unemployment benefits under the PUA and FPUC programs. Upon
12 review of Appellant's application and supporting documents, the Department issued its initial 13 determination on September 15, 2020. The Department's determination found the Appellant was 14 not a qualified alien and denied benefits effective March 15, 2020 to December 26, 2020.
15 Appellant filed the present appeal on September 21, 2020. Appellant is appealing the denial for 16 March 15, 2020 to April 30, 2020. The issue(s) on appeal is whether Appellant is a qualified alien
17 eligible for PUA.

18 IV. FINDINGS OF FACT

19 In consideration of the evidence provided and credibility of witness testimony, the 20 undersigned issues the following findings of fact:

- 21 1. Prior to the pandemic, Appellant was employed as the President of White Coconut 22 Computer Services ("Employer") located in Garapan, Saipan. Appellant regularly worked 23 40 hours per week at a rate of $22.50 per hour.
- 24 2. On or around mid-March, Employer temporarily closed its doors in response to the CNMI
25 Governor's executive directive regarding the public health emergency. During this time

27 ² See Section 2104 of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136.

28 ³ Pursuant to Section 2102(h) of the CARES Act of 2020 (Pub. L. 116-136) and 20 CFR § 625.2(r)(1)(ii), the CNMI Governor issued Executive Order No. 2020-09 declaring Hawaii Employment Security Law as the applicable state law in the CNMI. Hawaii state law applies, to the extent it does not conflict with applicable federal law and guidance.

1 the business was only open half day. The business reopened for regular business hours on 2 May 1, 2020. The business has been open full day to the date of this hearing and reports
3 an increase in revenue.

4 3. Appellant was authorized to work in the CNMI pursuant to an E2 Investor Visa valid from 5 May 15, 2017 to May 15, 2020.⁴

6 4. On or around September 2019, Appellant applied for permanent residency. To date, the 7 petition for permanent residency is still pending.

8 5. In light of the pending application, Appellant was granted employment authorization.
9 Appellant possessed a valid Employment Authorization Document ("EAD")⁵ card with 10 the following credentials:

11 a. Date of Birth: October 30, 1973

12 b. USCIS #: 087-956-286

13 c. Category: C09

14 d. Card #: MSC1991700769

15 e. Valid from November 12, 2019 to November 11, 2020.⁶

16 6. The Department entered Appellant's EAD Card information into the Systematic Alien
17 Verification for Entitlements (SAVE) database maintained by USCIS, Verification
18 Division.⁷ This database is used to determine the alien status of PUA applicants so only 19 those entitled to benefits receive them.

20 7. The SAVE results indicate that Appellant is a non-national of the U.S. who is admitted
21 for a specific reason and for a limited period of time. The results further indicate that
22 Appellant is temporarily allowed to work. The results confirm that Appellant's
23 employment authorization is under Category C09.⁸

24 V. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

25 In consideration of the above-stated findings and applicable law, the undersigned issues the
26 following conclusions of law:

27 ⁴ Exhibit 1.

28 ⁵ An EAD is a work permit that allows noncitizens to work in the United States.

⁶ Exhibit 1.

⁷ The Department did not utilize information from the Appellant's E2 Investor Visa because it was not provided to the Department with his PUA application. Regardless, the E2 Investor Visa would not have changed the SAVE Results.

⁸ Exhibit 3.

1 1. Appellant's employment was affected as a direct result of COVID-19.

2 Pursuant to Section 2102 of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136, there are a number
3 of requirements to meet the eligibility standard of PUA. First, the claimant cannot be qualified
4 for regular unemployment, extended benefits under state or federal law, or pandemic emergency
5 unemployment compensation (PEUC).⁹ Second, the claimant must show that he or she is able and
6 available for work, as defined by Hawaii law, except they are unemployed, partially unemployed,
7 or unable to work or unable for work due to at least one of the following COVID-19 reason
8 identified in Section 2102 (a)(3)(A)(ii)(I) of the CARES Act:

- 9 (a) The individual has been diagnosed with COVID-19 or is experiencing symptoms of
10 COVID-19 and is seeking a medical diagnosis;
11 (b) A member of the individual's household has been diagnosed with COVID-19;
12 (c) The individual is providing care for a family member or a member of the individual's
13 household who has been diagnosed with COVID-19;
14 (d) A child or other person in the household for which the individual has primary
15 caregiving responsibility is unable to attend school or another facility that is closed as
16 a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency and such school or facility
17 care is required for the individual to work;
18 (e) The individual is unable to reach the place of employment because of a quarantine
19 imposed as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency;
20 (f) The individual is unable to reach the place of employment because the individual has 21 been advised by a health care provider to quarantine due to concerns related to
22 COVID-19;
23 (g) The individual was scheduled to commence employment and does not have a job or is
24 unable to reach the job as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency;
25 (h) The individual has become the breadwinner or major support for a household because
26 the health of the household has died as a direct result of COVID-19;
27 (i) The individual has to quit his or her job as a direct result of COVID-19;
28 (j) The individual's place of employment is closed as a direct result of the COVID-19
 public health emergency; or
 (k) The individual is an independent contractor who is unemployed (total or partial) or is unable or unavailable to work because of the COVID-19 public health emergency has severely limited his or her ability to continue performing the customary job.

24 Based on the evidence and testimony provided, it is clear that Appellant's employment was 25 affected as a direct result of COVID-19. On or around mid-March 2020, Employer closed the 26 business half day pursuant to the Governor's Executive Orders regarding the COVID-19 public
27 health emergency. The business returned to full days on May 1, 2020. Accordingly, Appellant's employment was directly affected by a COVID-19 reason, indicated above from the time of closure to reopening on May 1, 2020.

 ⁹ This is not at issue in this case.

2. Appellant is not a qualified alien eligible for PUA.

PUA and FPUC are federal public benefits as defined by 8 USC §1611(c). As a condition of eligibility for any federal public benefit, the claimant must be a “qualified alien” at the time relevant to the claim. 8 USC §1611(a). Pursuant to 8 USC §1641, the term “qualified alien” is:

1. An alien admitted for permanent residence under the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA);
2. An alien granted asylum under § 208 of the INA;
3. A refugee admitted to the US under § 207 of the INA;
4. An alien paroled into the US under § 212(d)(5) of the INA for at least one year;
5. An alien whose deportation is being withheld under § 243(h) of the INA ... or whose removal is being withheld under § 241 (b)(3) of the INA;
6. An alien granted conditional entry pursuant to § 203 (a)(7) of the INA;
7. An alien who is a Cuban or Haitian entrant as defined in § 501(e) of the Refugee Education Assistance Act of 1980; or
8. An alien who (or whose child or parent) has been battered or subject to extreme cruelty in the U.S. and otherwise satisfies the requirements of § 431(c) of the Act.

Here, Appellant makes no argument or attempt to identify which provision of the qualified alien definition he fits into. Appellant simply provided a copy of his E2 investor visa and EAD card. Further, Appellant simply questions why EAD C11 can qualify while EAD C09 does not. When asked for additional evidence to establish Appellant’s argument, Appellant had no other documents. When questioned with regards to each provision of the qualified alien statute, as listed above, Appellant stated he was not a permanent resident, alien granted asylum, refugee, alien paroled into the U.S. for at least one year, an alien pending deportation or removal, an alien granted conditional entry, a Cuban or Haitian entrant, or an alien battered or subject to extreme cruelty.

Based on the evidence and testimony provided, Appellant does not meet the definition of a qualified alien. First, the SAVE results indicate that Appellant is an EAD, Category C09. Category C09 is a code that USCIS utilizes for applicants pending an adjustment in status. While the undersigned recognizes that Appellant has a pending application or petition with USCIS, said petition has not been approved or granted. Second, the undersigned rejects Appellant’s arguments that EADs with the category C09 and C11 are virtually the same and should be treated as such.

1 Appellant misunderstands the applicable law. As indicated above, C09 references an individual
2 who is authorized to work pending an adjustment in their status. Alternatively, C11 refers to an
3 alien paroled into the United States in the public interest or temporarily for emergency reasons.
4 Parolees who have been in the U.S. for at least one year may be considered qualified alien, while
5 those pending an adjustment in their status are not. Third, the undersigned rejects Appellant's
6 arguments that E2 Investor Visas meets the qualified alien definition. As stated above, the 7 qualified alien definition is very specific. While the E2 investor visa granted Appellant certain 8 rights and privileges to live and work in the CNMI, the E2 investor visa does not grant rights to 9 federal public benefits, such as PUA. In conclusion, Appellant is not a qualified alien. More 10 importantly, Appellant was not a qualified alien at the time of the weeks he is claiming PUA benefits.

11 VI. ORDER

12 For the reasons stated above, it is ORDERED that:

- 13 1. The CNMI Department of Labor's Determination is AFFIRMED; and
- 14 2. The Appellant is NOT ELIGIBLE to receive PUA benefits for the period of February
15 9, 2020 to December 26, 2020.

16 Instructions and appeal rights with respect to second level appeals are pending clarification
17 from U.S. Department of Labor. Until then, any party aggrieved by this Order may request a
18 second level appeal with a signed letter indicating why he or she disagrees with the decision. The
19 letter may be submitted to the Administrative Hearing Office in person (Building #1357, Mednilla
20 Ave) or electronically mailed to hearing@dol.gov.mp. Further action regarding second level appeals will remain pending until further guidance from U.S. Department of Labor.

Interpreter Rochelle Tomokane assisted with the proceedings. There were no other witnesses who gave testimony at the hearing.¹

Exhibits:

1. Exhibit 1: Copy of Appellant's Employment Authorization Card, valid between March 4, 2020 to March 3, 2020
2. Exhibit 2: Department's Save Results

For the reasons stated below, the Department's Determination dated September 15, 2020 is AFFIRMED. Claimant is not eligible for benefits for the period of March 22, 2020 to December 26, 2020.

II. JURISDICTION

On March 27, 2020, the Coronavirus Aid Relief and Economic Security ("CARES") Act of 2020 was signed into law creating new temporary federal programs for unemployment benefits called Pandemic Unemployment Assistance ("PUA")² and Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation ("FPUC").³ On March 29, 2020, the CNMI Government executed an agreement with the US Secretary of Labor to operate the PUA and FPUC program in accordance to applicable law.⁴ The CNMI Department of Labor is charged with the responsibility in administering the above-mentioned programs in the CNMI. The CNMI Department of Labor Administrative Hearing Office has been designated to preside over first level appeals of the aforesaid programs.

Upon review of the records, the appeal was timely filed. Accordingly, jurisdiction is established.

III. PROCEDURAL HISTORY & ISSUE

Appellant filed a claim for unemployment benefits under the PUA and FPUC programs. Upon review of Appellant's application and supporting documents, the Department issued its initial determination on September 15, 2020. The Department's determination found the Appellant was not a qualified alien and denied benefits effective March 15, 2020 to December 26, 2020. Appellant filed the present appeal on September 21, 2020. Appellant is appealing the denial for March 15, 2020 to April 30, 2020. The issue(s) on appeal is whether Appellant is a qualified alien eligible for PUA.

IV. FINDINGS OF FACT

In consideration of the evidence provided and credibility of witness testimony, the undersigned issues the following findings of fact:

² See Section 2102 of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136.

³ See Section 2104 of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136.

⁴ Pursuant to Section 2102(h) of the CARES Act of 2020 (Pub. L. 116-136) and 20 CFR § 625.2(r)(1)(ii), the CNMI Governor issued Executive Order No. 2020-09 declaring Hawaii Employment Security Law as the applicable state law in the CNMI. Hawaii state law applies, to the extent it does not conflict with applicable federal law and guidance.

1. Prior to the pandemic, Appellant was employed as an Assistant Cook at Kinpachi Restaurant ("Employer") located in Garapan, Saipan. Appellant regularly worked 34-40 hours biweekly at a rate of $7.51 per hour.
2. Effective March 24, 2020, Employer temporarily closed its doors in response to the CNMI Governor's executive directive regarding the public health emergency. Appellant returned to work around the last week of July 2020, with reduced hours.
3. On August 7, 2020, Appellant stopped working at Employer at started another job with higher pay and more hours.
4. Despite having another job, Appellant continued to apply for benefits and is appealing the entire denial period from March 22, 2020 to December 26, 2020.⁵
5. On or around December 27 2019, Appellant applied for permanent residency. To date, the petition for permanent residency is still pending.
6. In light of the pending application, Appellant was granted employment authorization. Appellant possessed a valid Employment Authorization Document ("EAD")⁶ card with the following credentials:
 - a. Date of Birth: February 8, 1969
 - b. USCIS #: 200-160-269
 - c. Category: C09
 - d. Card #: MSC2090500787
 - e. Valid from March 4, 2020 to March 3, 2021.⁷
7. On or around September 17, 2020, the Department entered Appellant's EAD Card information into the Systematic Alien Verification for Entitlements (SAVE) database maintained by USCIS, Verification Division.⁸ This database is used to determine the alien status of PUA applicants so only those entitled to benefits receive them.

⁵ The Department shall report this potential fraud issue to the appropriate federal agency.

⁶ An EAD is a work permit that allows noncitizens to work in the United States.

⁷ Exhibit 1.

⁸ The Department did not utilize information from the Appellant's E2 Investor Visa because it was not provided to the Department with his PUA application. Regardless, the E2 Investor Visa would not have changed the SAVE Results.

8. The SAVE results indicate that Appellant is a non-national of the U.S. who is temporarily authorized to work in the U.S. The results confirm that Appellant's employment authorization is under Category C09.⁹

V. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

In consideration of the above-stated findings and applicable law, the undersigned issues the following conclusions of law:

1. Appellant's employment was affected as a direct result of COVID-19.

Pursuant to Section 2102 of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136, there are a number of requirements to meet the eligibility standard of PUA. First, the claimant cannot be qualified for regular unemployment, extended benefits under state or federal law, or pandemic emergency unemployment compensation (PEUC).¹⁰ Second, the claimant must show that he or she is able and available for work, as defined by Hawaii law, except they are unemployed, partially unemployed, or unable to work or unable for work due to at least one of the following COVID-19 reason identified in Section 2102 (a)(3)(A)(ii)(I) of the CARES Act:

- (a) The individual has been diagnosed with COVID-19 or is experiencing symptoms of COVID-19 and is seeking a medical diagnosis;
- (b) A member of the individual's household has been diagnosed with COVID-19;
- (c) The individual is providing care for a family member or a member of the individual's household who has been diagnosed with COVID-19;
- (d) A child or other person in the household for which the individual has primary caregiving responsibility is unable to attend school or another facility that is closed as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency and such school or facility care is required for the individual to work;
- (e) The individual is unable to reach the place of employment because of a quarantine imposed as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency;
- (f) The individual is unable to reach the place of employment because the individual has been advised by a health care provider to quarantine due to concerns related to COVID-19;
- (g) The individual was scheduled to commence employment and does not have a job or is unable to reach the job as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency;
- (h) The individual has become the breadwinner or major support for a household because the health of the household has died as a direct result of COVID-19;
- (i) The individual has to quit his or her job as a direct result of COVID-19;
- (j) The individual's place of employment is closed as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency; or

⁹ Exhibit 3.

¹⁰ This is not at issue in this case.

- 1 (k) The individual is an independent contractor who is unemployed (total or partial) or is
2 unable or unavailable to work because of the COVID-19 public health emergency has severely limited his or her ability to continue performing the customary job.

3 Based on the evidence and testimony provided, it is clear that Appellant's employment was
4 affected as a direct result of COVID-19. At the end of March 2020, Employer closed the business
5 half day pursuant to the Governor's Executive Orders regarding the COVID-19 public health
6 emergency. Further, when the business reopened Appellant was given reduced hours due to lack 7 of customers from the halt in tourism. Accordingly, Appellant's employment was directly
8 affected by a COVID-19 reason from March 24, 2020 to August 7, 2020—when Appellant
9 returned to full time work with another employer.

10 2. Appellant is not a qualified alien eligible for PUA.

11 PUA and FPUC are federal public benefits as defined by 8 USC §1611(c). As a condition of
12 eligibility for any federal public benefit, the claimant must be a "qualified alien" at the time
13 relevant to the claim. 8 USC §1611(a). Pursuant to 8 USC §1641, the term "qualified alien" is:

- 14 1. An alien admitted for permanent residence under the Immigration and Nationality Act
15 (INA);
16 2. An alien granted asylum under § 208 of the INA;
17 3. A refugee admitted to the US under § 207 of the INA;
18 4. An alien paroled into the US under § 212(d)(5) of the INA for at least one year;
19 5. An alien whose deportation is being withheld under § 243(h) of the INA ... or whose
20 removal is being withheld under § 241 (b)(3) of the INA;
21 6. An alien granted conditional entry pursuant to § 203 (a)(7) of the INA;
22 7. An alien who is a Cuban or Haitian entrant as defined in § 501(e) of the Refugee
23 Education Assistance Act of 1980; or
24 8. An alien who (or whose child or parent) has been battered or subject to extreme cruelty
25 in the U.S. and otherwise satisfies the requirements of § 431(c) of the Act.

26 Here, Appellant makes no argument or attempt to identify which provision of the qualified
27 alien definition he fits into. Appellant simply provided a copy of his EAD card and indicated he 28 has applied for permanent residency. When asked for additional evidence to establish Appellant's argument, Appellant had no other documents. When questioned with regards to each provision of the qualified alien statute, as listed above, Appellant stated he was not a permanent resident, alien granted asylum, refugee, alien paroled into the U.S. for at least one year, an alien pending

1 deportation or removal, an alien granted conditional entry, a Cuban or Haitian entrant, or an alien
2 battered or subject to extreme cruelty.

3 Based on the evidence and testimony provided, Appellant does not meet the definition of a
4 qualified alien. First, the SAVE results indicate that Appellant is an EAD, Category C09.
5 Category C09 is a code that USCIS utilizes for applicants pending an adjustment in status. While
6 the undersigned recognizes that Appellant has a pending application or petition with USCIS, said
7 petition has not been approved or granted. Pending applications are insufficient to establish a
8 qualified alien status. In conclusion, Appellant was not a qualified alien at the time of the weeks
9 he is claiming PUA benefits and is not currently a qualified alien.

10 VI. ORDER

11 For the reasons stated above, it is ORDERED that:

- 12 1. The CNMI Department of Labor's Determination is AFFIRMED; and
- 13 2. The Appellant is NOT ELIGIBLE to receive PUA benefits for the period of March 22,
14 2020 to December 26, 2020.

15 Instructions and appeal rights with respect to second level appeals are pending clarification
16 from U.S. Department of Labor. Until then, any party aggrieved by this Order may request a
17 second level appeal with a signed letter indicating why he or she disagrees with the decision. The
18 letter may be submitted to the Administrative Hearing Office in person (Building #1357, Mednilla
19 Ave) or electronically mailed to hearing@dol.gov.mp. Further action regarding second level

COMMONWEALTH OF THE NORTHERN MARIANA ISLANDS
DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING OFFICE

In Re Matter of:) PUA Case No. 20-0014
Jayda M. Mendoza) Appellant,) ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
v.)
CNMI Department of Labor,) Division of Employment Services-PUA,) Appellee.)

I. INTRODUCTION

This matter came before the undersigned for an Administrative Hearing on October 8, 2020 at 9:00 a.m. at the Administrative Hearing Office. Due to the ongoing COVID-19 public health emergency, the hearing was held telephonically. Appellant Jayda M. Mendoza ("Appellant") was present and represented by Attorney Anthony Aguon. Appellee CNMI Department of Labor Division of Employment Services – Pandemic Unemployment Assistance program ("Appellee" or "Department") was present and represented by PUA Supervisor Jake Maratita and PUA Supervisor Sharon Palacios. There were no other witnesses who gave testimony at the hearing.¹

Exhibits:

1. Exhibit 1: Email from Pacific Islands Club Saipan, dated September 18, 2020.²

For the reasons stated below, the Department's Determination dated September 8, 2020 is AFFIRMED. Claimant is not eligible for benefits for the period of March 8, 2020 to December 26, 2020.

¹ Appellant's mother, Clarice Mendoza was also present but did not provide testimony. Appellee also brought additional support staff, Dennis Cabrera and Brenda Lynn Sablan.

² Counsel for Appellant objected to this exhibit on the basis of hearsay. Counsel's objection was overruled because Administrative Hearings for PUA Appeals "shall not be bound by common law or statutory rules of evidence or by technical rules of procedure." HI Rev. Statutes §§ 389-399; Compare NMIAC § 80-20.1-480(e) ("Strict adherence to formal rules of evidence shall not be necessary. . ."). The undersigned found the email communication relevant, reliable, and uncontradicted. For that reason, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.

II. JURISDICTION

On March 27, 2020, the Coronavirus Aid Relief and Economic Security ("CARES") Act of 2020 was signed into law creating new temporary federal programs for unemployment benefits called Pandemic Unemployment Assistance ("PUA")³ and Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation ("FPUC").⁴ On March 29, 2020, the CNMI Government executed an agreement with the US Secretary of Labor to operate the PUA and FPUC program in accordance to applicable law.⁵ The CNMI Department of Labor is charged with the responsibility in administering the above-mentioned programs in the CNMI. The CNMI Department of Labor Administrative Hearing Office has been designated to preside over first level appeals of the aforesaid programs.

Upon review of the records, the appeal was timely filed. Accordingly, jurisdiction is established.

III. PROCEDURAL HISTORY & ISSUES

Appellant filed a claim for unemployment benefits under the PUA and FPUC programs. Upon review of Appellant's application and supporting documents, the Department issued its disqualifying determination on September 1, 2020. The Department's determination found that Appellant failed to provide sufficient proof of employment at the time the Pandemic began or were to start work but could not because of the pandemic. The disqualification is effective February 23, 2020 to December 26, 2020. Additionally, on September 10, 2020, the Department issued Appellant a notice of overpayment in the total amount of $18,825. On September 31, 2020, Appellant filed a request to appeal the above-mentioned disqualifying determination and notice of overpayment. As stated in the Notice of Hearing issued September 22, 2020, the issues on appeal are: (1) whether the appeal is timely filed; (2) whether Appellant is eligible for PUA; and (3) whether an overpayment occurred and funds should be returned.

⁴ See Section 2104 of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136.

⁵ Pursuant to Section 2102(h) of the CARES Act of 2020 (Pub. L. 116-136) and 20 CFR § 625.2(r)(1)(ii), the CNMI Governor issued Executive Order No. 2020-09 declaring Hawaii Employment Security Law as the applicable state law in the CNMI. Hawaii state law applies, to the extent it does not conflict with applicable federal law and guidance.

IV. FINDINGS OF FACT

In consideration of the evidence provided and credibility of witness testimony, the undersigned issues the following findings of fact:

1. Appellant did not have a recent attachment to the CNMI work force prior to the pandemic.
2. From approximately 2016 to September 2019, Appellant was employed as a Club Mate at Pacific Islands Club, Saipan ("PIC") located in Afetnas, Saipan. At the end of September 2019, Appellant resigned to move to San Diego, California.
3. Appellant returned to the CNMI on or around November 2019. After returning to the CNMI, Appellant began looking for employment.
4. Appellant inquired about work with her former supervisor and SEA Director at PIC, Dennis Tababa. Tababa made statements like, "whenever you want back in – let me know."
5. Appellant's supervisor advised her to submit an application to PIC. On November 12, 2020, Appellant submitted an application and was granted an interview.⁶ Appellant declined the invitation to interview on November 18, 2019 because she decided to go to another interview with the Public School System ("PSS"). Appellant was not offered the position with PSS.
6. When Appellant returned to PIC to inquire whether the position was filled, Tababa advised her to reopen her application with the Human Resources office. Appellant never reopened her application because she did not consider PIC as a first choice.
7. Appellant continued to look for other work but was unsuccessful. Appellant applied to First Hawaiian Bank ("FHB") but was not granted an interview.
8. While Appellant believed that Tababa had authority to make hiring decisions at PIC, Tababa never actually offered Appellant a job or scheduled her to begin work.
9. Appellant received a total of $18,825 in unemployment assistance. Specifically, Appellant received $8,625 in PUA benefits and $10,200 in FPUC benefits for the work weeks ending February 29, 2020 through August 15, 2020. Due to the backlog in processing, Appellant received a lump sum amount of approximately 16,000 on August 4, 2020 and the remaining amount sometime thereafter by direct deposit.

⁶ Exhibit 1.

10. Appellant used a portion of this money to renovate her house, buy supplies for an incoming newborn, and pay bills. Appellant has approximately $5,000 remaining.
11. On August 20, 2020, the Department received an anonymous tip alleging Appellant's potential fraud and overpayment. As a result, the Department's PUA Benefit Payment Control Unit conducted a targeted audit of Appellant's PUA claim.
12. On September 1, 2020, the Department issued a determination disqualifying Appellant from PUA benefits for failure to submit necessary documentation to support her application.
13. On September 10, 2020, the Department issued a Notice of Overpayment for previously received PUA benefits of $18, 825.
14. On September 12, 2020, Appellant filed her appeal on Guam. On September 18, 2020, Guam instructed Appellant that she needed to file her appeal in Saipan. That same day, Appellant emailed the wrong Appeal form to the Administrative Hearing Office. On September 21, 2020, Appellant filed the correct Appeal form.

V. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

In consideration of the above-stated findings and applicable law, the undersigned issues the following conclusions of law:

1. For good cause shown, the filing appeal shall be extended to thirty days. Appellant's appeal is timely.

Generally, an appeal should be filed within ten days after the Notice of Determination was issued or served to the claimant. However, the Department may extend the period to thirty days by a showing of good cause.⁷ Good cause means: (1) illness or disability; (2) keeping an appointment for a job interview; (3) attending a funeral of a family member; and (4) any other reason which would prevent a reasonable person from complying as directed.⁸

Here, Appellant received the disqualifying determination on September 1, 2020. Additionally, Appellant received a Notice of Overpayment on September 10, 2020. Appellant mistakenly filed her appeal in Guam on September 12, 2020. This mistake was due to a technical error by the Department's online portal which generated a determination using Guam's Department of Labor letterhead and instructions. On September 18, 2020, Appellant was instructed that she had to file her appeal with the CNMI Department of Labor, Administrative Hearing Office. That same day,

⁷ HI. Rev. Statute § 383-38(a).

⁸ HAR § 12-5-81(j).

1 Appellant emailed the Department's Administrative Hearing Office but submitted the wrong
2 appeal form. On September 21, 2020, Appellant filed the correct appeal form at the correct office.

3 Notably, Appellant did not take action with the respect to the disqualifying determination for 4 eleven (11) days—she received her notice on September 1, 2020 but emailed Guam on September
5 12, 2020. Additionally, Appellant did not take action with respect to the Notice of Overpayment 6 for eleven (11) days—she received her notice on September 10, 2020 but filed an appeal on 7 September 21, 2020. However, in consideration of the technical errors and inconsistent filing
8 instructions, the undersigned finds good cause to extend the filing period to 30 days from the day 9 Appellant receives notice. Here, Appellant filed her appeal on September 21, 2020, within the thirty (30) day extended timeline. Accordingly, Appellant's filing is timely.

10 2. The Department's disqualification for Appellant's failure to report or provide 11 supporting documents was proper.

12 Pursuant to Section 2102(h) of the CARES Act of 2020 (Pub. L. 116-136), the terms and 13 conditions of the law of the applicable jurisdiction in which an individual would be paid PUA
14 benefits, applies to the processing of the PUA claims. This includes determinations related to 15 failure to report as directed provisions. For the PUA Program in the CNMI, the applicable
16 provisions of the State of Hawaii will apply to adjudicating a claimant's failure to report as 17 directed. Under Haw. Code R. § 12-5-81(i-j), a claimant is required to respond or complete an 18 action as directed by the agency or Department. This includes reporting to appointments scheduled
19 by the agency and/or requests to provide information or documents. If a claimant fails to respond
20 as directed, he or she is not eligible for benefits in the affected week, unless good cause is shown
21 for the failure. The standard of "good cause" is generally considered to include exigent 22 circumstances or those beyond the control of the claimant such as illness, and/or other reasons which would prevent a reasonable person from complying as directed.⁹

23 In this case, Appellant was scheduled for an interview with the Benefits Payment Control Unit
24 ("BPC") after someone submitted an anonymous tip of potentially fraudulent activity. Appellant
25 was unable to attend the first scheduled interview and was rescheduled for a later date. During that 26 interview, the PUA Coordinators at BPC asked Appellant for more information on how her 27 employment was affected by COVID-19 and requested for additional documents to support her 28 claim. Appellant had no additional documents to provide regarding an alleged verbal offer of ⁹ Haw. Code R. § 12-5-81(j).

1 employment and was subsequently disqualified for payments. Since there were no supporting
2 documents submitted, Appellant failed to meet the reporting requirements and disqualification
3 under Haw. Code R. § 12-5-81(i-j) was warranted.

4 3. Appellant's employment was not affected as a direct result of COVID-19.

5 Pursuant to Section 2102 of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136, there are a number
6 of requirements to meet the eligibility standard of PUA. First, the claimant cannot be qualified
7 for regular unemployment, extended benefits under state or federal law, or pandemic emergency
8 unemployment compensation (PEUC).¹⁰ Second, the claimant must attest¹¹ that he or she is able 9 and available for work, as defined by Hawaii law, except they are unemployed, partially 10 unemployed, or unable to work or unavailable for work as a direct result¹² of a COVID-19 reason identified in Section 2102 (a)(3)(A)(ii)(I) of the CARES Act:

- 11 (a) The individual has been diagnosed with COVID-19 or is experiencing symptoms of
12 COVID-19 and is seeking a medical diagnosis;
13 (b) A member of the individual's household has been diagnosed with COVID-19;
14 (c) The individual is providing care for a family member or a member of the individual's household who has been diagnosed with COVID-19;
15 (d) A child or other person in the household for which the individual has primary
caregiving responsibility is unable to attend school or another facility that is closed as 16 a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency and such school or facility
care is required for the individual to work;
17 (e) The individual is unable to reach the place of employment because of a quarantine
imposed as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency;
18 (f) The individual is unable to reach the place of employment because the individual has 19 been advised by a health care provider to quarantine due to concerns related to
COVID-19;
20 (g) The individual was scheduled to commence employment and does not have a job or is unable to reach the job as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency;
21 (h) The individual has become the breadwinner or major support for a household because the health of the household has died as a direct result of COVID-19;
22 (i) The individual has to quit his or her job as a direct result of COVID-19;
23 (j) The individual's place of employment is closed as a direct result of the COVID-19
public health emergency; or
24 (k) The individual is an independent contractor who is unemployed (total or partial) or is
25 unable or unavailable to work because of the COVID-19 public health emergency has 26 severely limited his or her ability to continue performing the customary job.

28 ¹⁰ This is not at issue in this case.

¹¹ The PUA program relies on self-certifications and self-reporting under penalty of perjury.

¹² Pursuant to 20 CFR § 625.5, unemployment is considered a "direct result" of the pandemic where the employment is an immediate result of the COVID-19 public health emergency itself, and not the result of a longer chain of events precipitated or exacerbated by the pandemic.

1 Here, Appellant submitted a claim for PUA self-certifying that she relocated back to the 2 CNMI and was unable to find employment due to COVID-19. Appellant's inability to find
3 suitable work is not a COVID-19 reason listed above. When questioned under oath as to each of 4 the qualifying COVID-19 reasons, Appellant responded in the negative. As further discussed
5 below, Appellant's employment was not affected as a direct result of a COVID-19 reasons.

6 First, Appellant did not have recent attachment to the workforce. Appellant worked as a club
7 mate at PIC until September 2019. Unrelated and prior to the COVID-19 public health emergency,
8 Appellant resigned from PIC on or around September 2019 because she was relocating to San 9 Diego, California. Appellant returned to the CNMI on or around November 2019. At that time,
10 Appellant looked for work but was unsuccessful.

11 Second, Appellant was never scheduled to commence employment at PIC, PSS or FHB.
12 Appellant returned to the CNMI on or around November 2019. Upon return, Appellant applied to 13 a number of jobs. Appellant's former supervisor at PIC advised her to submit an application and 14 said, "whenever you want back in, let me know." After submitting an application to PIC,
15 Appellant was granted an interview. Appellant declined the invitation to interview at PIC in order
16 to pursue another interview with PSS. Ultimately, Appellant did not receive job offers from PSS
17 or FHB. When Appellant returned to PIC to follow up on the position, her former supervisor 18 advised her to reopen her application. Since PIC was not her first option, Appellant chose not to 19 reopen her application. During the investigation, BPC verified employment records with PIC to 20 corroborate Appellant's testimony. PIC has no record of Appellant reopening her application.
21 Logically, a person cannot "be scheduled to commence employment" if they were never offered 22 a job.

23 Third, statements by the Appellant's supervisor did not amount to a bonafide job offer. Here,
24 Appellant mistakes the statement, "whenever you want back in, let me know" as a job offer.
25 However, this statement fails to convey necessary details like duties, starting pay, hours of work,
26 or schedule to commence. Further, taken in a totality of circumstances, the statement could not
27 reasonably convey a job offer when her supervisor subsequently advised her to apply for a job 28 and reopen her application.

In conclusion, Appellant's employment was not affected as a direct result of COVID-19.

1 4. An overpayment occurred and Appellant is required to pay the amount back.

2 Notably, PUA benefits were designed to be a critical lifeline for qualifying individuals facing
3 a financial crisis amidst a pandemic. PUA is not an excuse to refuse suitable work. PUA is not a
4 license to make irresponsible purchases. PUA is not free or unencumbered money. Issues of 5 fraud¹³ and overpayments are of great consequence that jeopardizes the integrity of the program
6 and availability of funds for eligible or qualified individuals. For those reasons, waivers are 7 granted under very specific situations.

8 PUA and FPUC overpayments are treated differently. The CNMI has no authority to waive
9 repayment of PUA overpayments. The Appellant must pay back this amount. In cases of FPUC
10 overpayments, the CNMI may waive repayment if is the payment was made without fault on the 11 part of the individual and such repayment would be contrary to equity and good conscience.¹⁴
12 Based on federal guidance, “contrary to equity and good conscience” is tantamount to placing an 13 individual below the poverty line and taking away basic necessities to live.

14 Considering that Appellant’s employment was not affected as a direct result of COVID-19, 15 the $8,625 in PUA benefits and $10,200 in FPUC benefits received by Appellant is an 16 overpayment.¹⁵ During the Administrative Hearing, counsel for Appellant requested a waiver or 17 reasonable payment plan.

18 The undersigned finds that a waiver of FPUC overpayments is not appropriate. Here,
19 undersigned recognizes that Appellant did not necessarily lie on her application when she listed
20 her COVID-19 reason as “relocated back on island and wasn’t able to find employment due to 21 COVID-19.” However, Appellant submitted weekly certifications that indicated she was 22 scheduled to commence work and argued she had a legitimate job offer when she clearly did not.
23 Further, Appellant must be held accountable for the inaccurate, incomplete, or uninformed
24 answers she submitted under penalty of perjury. The Department testified to publishing a benefit 25 rights handbook—which explained the program operations and eligibility requirements. The 26 Department testified to conducting a number of online community outreaches, which explained
27 the application process and questions. The Department also testified that this program relies on 28 self-certification and self-reporting under penalty of perjury—which advises Appellant to read

¹³ This office has no jurisdiction to make findings or conclusions as to federal offenses, like fraud. Issues of fraud are escalated to the US Department of Labor, Office of the Inspector General and prosecuted in federal court.

¹⁴ Section 2104(f)(2) of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136; See UIPL 16-20.

¹⁵ See Notice of Overpayment, issued September 10, 2020.

1 the benefit rights handbooks so they can make informed answers. Ultimately, the Appellant
2 cannot feign ignorance, render self-certifications meaningless, or shift the burden on the 3 Department to ensure she is providing complete and accurate information. For these reasons, the 4 undersigned must assign some fault on the Appellant. Accordingly, Appellant is not entitled to a 5 waiver.

6 The undersigned further finds that repayment would not be contrary to equity and good
7 conscience. Based on the testimony provided, Appellant is able to immediately pay back the 8 remaining $5,000 and amenable to a biweekly repayment plan of $200. The repayment plan is 9 reasonable for the following reasons. First, Appellant has a very small amount of monthly bills
10 or expenses. Specifically, Appellant contributes approximately $200 a month on utilities, which 11 is shared by two other roommates, in a home that is rent and mortgage free. Her contribution for 12 utilities has been irregular and this second home is not the Appellant's only available living
13 option. Further, Appellant has already paid off her phone and car. Appellant has no other 14 expenses. Second, Appellant is supported by family and the father of her incoming child.
15 Specifically, Appellant indicates that her parents provide cash and her significant other provides 16 for food. Appellant further indicated that her significant other receives rightfully PUA assistance
17 and helps support her. Third, Appellant readily avails of other public assistance for necessities
18 like medical and food. Accordingly, requiring Appellant to return the overpayment is not contrary 19 to equity and good conscience.

20 VI. CONCLUSION

21 For the reasons stated above, it is ORDERED that:

- 22 1. The CNMI Department of Labor's Determination is AFFIRMED;
- 23 2. The Appellant is NOT ELIGIBLE to receive PUA benefits for the period of February
24 23, 2020 to December 26, 2020;
- 25 3. The CNMI Department of Labor's Notice of Overpayment is AFFIRMED;
- 26 4. Appellant shall promptly submit to a repayment plan, with the Benefit Payment Control
27 Unit. Appellant shall repay the remaining $5,000 in her possession on or before October 28 23, 2020. Additionally, Appellant shall pay monthly installments of, at least, $200.00 by the first of each month, beginning November 1, 2020, until the entire overpayment is completely repaid;
5. The CNMI Department of Labor Benefit Payment Control Unit shall notify the CNMI Department of Finance of this overpayment in federal funds. Where possible, BPC shall

1 collect any of Appellant's tax rebates, tax refunds, stimulus checks, or other federal 2 funds to satisfy this debt; and

- 3 6. The CNMI Department of Labor Benefit Payment Control Unit shall refer this matter to 4 U.S. Department of Labor, Office of the Inspector General to allow investigation and 5 potential prosecution of fraud.

6 Instructions and appeal rights with respect to second level appeals are pending clarification
7 from U.S. Department of Labor. Until then, any party aggrieved by this Order may request a
8 second level appeal with a signed letter indicating why he or she disagrees with the decision. The
9 letter may be submitted to the Administrative Hearing Office in person (Building #1357, Mednilla
10 Ave) or electronically mailed to hearing@dol.gov.mp. Further action regarding second level
11 appeals will remain pending until further guidance from U.S. Department of Labor.

12 So ordered this 16th day of October, 2020.

I. INTRODUCTION

This matter came before the undersigned for an Administrative Hearing on October 8, 2020 at 9:00 a.m. at the Administrative Hearing Office. Due to the ongoing COVID-19 public health emergency, the hearing was held telephonically. Appellant Roselyn Q. Creencia ("Appellant") was present and self-represented. Appellee CNMI Department of Labor Division of Employment Services – Pandemic Unemployment Assistance program ("Appellee" or "Department") was present and represented by PUA Supervisor Jake Maratita and Labor Certification Worker Dennis Cabrera. There were no other witnesses who gave testimony at the hearing.¹

Exhibits:

1. Exhibit 1: Copy of Appellant's Employment Verification Letter, dated July 17, 2020
2. Exhibit 2: Copy of Appellant's Certification Letter
3. Exhibit 3: Copy of Appellant's Employment Authorization Card, valid between March 10, 2020 to March 9, 2021; and
4. Exhibit 4: Department's Save Results

For the reasons stated below, the Department's Determination dated September 8, 2020 is AFFIRMED. Claimant is not eligible for benefits for the period of March 8, 2020 to December 26, 2020.

¹ Appellant's husband, Alen Creencia, was present on the line but did not provide testimony.

II. JURISDICTION

On March 27, 2020, the Coronavirus Aid Relief and Economic Security ("CARES") Act of 2020 was signed into law creating new temporary federal programs for unemployment benefits called Pandemic Unemployment Assistance ("PUA")² and Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation ("FPUC").³ On March 29, 2020, the CNMI Government executed an agreement with the US Secretary of Labor to operate the PUA and FPUC program in accordance to applicable law.⁴ The CNMI Department of Labor is charged with the responsibility of administering the above-mentioned programs in the CNMI. The CNMI Department of Labor Administrative Hearing Office has been designated to preside over first level appeals of the aforesaid programs.

Upon review of the records, the appeal was timely filed. Accordingly, jurisdiction is established.

III. PROCEDURAL HISTORY & ISSUE

Appellant filed a claim for unemployment benefits under the PUA and FPUC programs. Upon review of Appellant's application and supporting documents, the Department issued its initial determination on September 8, 2020. The Department's determination found the Appellant was not a qualified alien and denied benefits effective March 8, 2020 to December 26, 2020. Appellant filed the present appeal on September 23, 2020. The issues on appeal are: (1) whether the appeal is timely filed; and (2) whether Appellant is a qualified alien eligible for PUA.⁵

IV. FINDINGS OF FACT

In consideration of the evidence provided and credibility of witness testimony, the undersigned issues the following findings of fact:

² See Section 2102 of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136.

³ See Section 2104 of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136.

⁴ Pursuant to Section 2102(h) of the CARES Act of 2020 (Pub. L. 116-136) and 20 CFR § 625.2(r)(1)(ii), the CNMI Governor issued Executive Order No. 2020-09 declaring Hawaii Employment Security Law as the applicable state law in the CNMI. Hawaii state law applies, to the extent it does not conflict with applicable federal law and guidance.

⁵ During the Administrative Hearing, Appellant testified as to potential overpayment issues and PUA funds previously received. Accordingly, this matter shall be referred to the Department's Benefit Payment Control Unit for further investigation.

1. Prior to the pandemic, Appellant was employed as an Accounting Specialist at Herman's Modern Bakery, Inc. ("Employer") located in Lower Dan Dan, Saipan. Appellant regularly worked 40 hours a week at a rate of $8.85 per hour.
2. Due to the economic impact of COVID-19, Employer implemented a reduction in operating hours to ensure financial stability of the company. This reduction in operating hours translated into a reduction in Appellant's working hours from March 9, 2020 to July 10, 2020.⁶ From July 6, 2020 to August 2020, Appellant's hours were reduced to 30 hours per week.⁷
3. On or around November 2019, Appellant applied for permanent residency after marrying a U.S. Citizen. To date, the petition for permanent residency is still pending. Appellant followed up with USCIS on September 14, 2020 and was informed her application was still pending and remains under active examination.
4. In light of the pending application, Appellant was granted employment authorization. Appellant possessed a valid Employment Authorization Document ("EAD")⁸ card with the following credentials:
 - a. Date of Birth: March 17, 1992
 - b. USCIS #: 219-393-630
 - c. Category: C09
 - d. Card #: MSC2090385133
 - e. Valid from March 10, 2020 to March 9, 2021.⁹
5. On or around August 19, 2020, the Department entered Appellant's EAD Card information into the Systematic Alien Verification for Entitlements (SAVE) database maintained by USCIS, Verification Division. This database is used to determine the alien status of PUA applicants so only those entitled to benefits receive them.
6. The SAVE results indicate that Appellant is a non-national of the U.S. that has filed an application with USCIS for an extension, change, or adjustment of status or to obtain

⁷ Exhibit 2.

⁸ An EAD is a work permit that allows noncitizens to work in the United States.

⁹ Exhibit 3.

1 employment authorization, but a decision has not yet been made. The results confirm that
2 Appellant's employment authorization is under Category C09.¹⁰

3 7. On September 8, 2020, the Department issued a determination denying PUA benefits.

4 8. On September 11, 2020, Appellant filed her appeal on Guam. On September 12, 2020,
5 Guam instructed Appellant that she needed to file her appeal in Saipan. That same day,
6 Appellant emailed the Department's email dedicated general PUA information and 7 inquiries, instead of the Administrative Hearing Office. After not receiving a response, 8 Appellant personally visited the Administrative Hearing Office on September 23, 2020 to file an appeal.

9 V. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

10 In consideration of the above-stated findings and applicable law, the undersigned issues the 11 following conclusions of law:

- 12 1. For good cause shown, the filing appeal shall be extended to thirty days.
13 Appellant's appeal is timely.

14 Generally, an appeal should be filed within ten days after the Notice of Determination was 15 issued or served to the claimant. However, the Department may extend the period to thirty days
16 by a showing of good cause.¹¹ Good cause means: (1) illness or disability; (2) keeping an 17 appointment for a job interview; (3) attending a funeral of a family member; and (4) any other reason which would prevent a reasonable person from complying as directed.¹²

18 Here, Appellant received the determination on September 8, 2020. Appellant mistakenly filed
19 her appeal in Guam on September 11, 2020. This mistake was due to a technical error by the
20 Department's online portal which generated a determination using Guam's Department of Labor
21 letterhead and instructions. On September 12, 2020, Appellant was instructed that she had to file
22 her appeal with the CNMI Department of Labor, Administrative Hearing Office. That same day,
23 Appellant emailed the Department's email dedicated general PUA information and inquiries,
24 instead of the Administrative Hearing Office. After not receiving a response, Appellant personally
25 visited the Administrative Hearing Office on September 23, 2020 to file an appeal. Ultimately,
26 the undersigned finds that Appellant acted reasonably and diligently in filing her appeal.

27 _____
28 ¹⁰ Exhibit 3.

¹¹ HI. Rev. Statute § 383-38(a).

¹² HAR § 12-5-81(j).

1 In consideration of the technical errors and inconsistent filing instructions, the undersigned
2 finds good cause to extend the filing period to 30 days. This extension allowed appeals to be filed
3 until October 8, 2020. Here, Appellant filed her appeal on September 23, 2020. Accordingly, 4 Appellant's filing is timely.

5 2. Appellant's employment was affected as a direct result of COVID-19.

6 Pursuant to Section 2102 of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136, there are a number
7 of requirements to meet the eligibility standard of PUA. First, the claimant cannot be qualified
8 for regular unemployment, extended benefits under state or federal law, or pandemic emergency
9 unemployment compensation (PEUC).¹³ Second, the claimant must show that he or she is able
10 and available for work, as defined by Hawaii law, except they are unemployed, partially
11 unemployed, or unable to work or unable for work due to at least one of the following COVID-
12 19 reason identified in Section 2102 (a)(3)(A)(ii)(I) of the CARES Act:

- 13 (a) The individual has been diagnosed with COVID-19 or is experiencing symptoms of 14 COVID-19 and is seeking a medical diagnosis;
- 15 (b) A member of the individual's household has been diagnosed with COVID-19;
- 16 (c) The individual is providing care for a family member or a member of the individual's
17 household who has been diagnosed with COVID-19;
- 18 (d) A child or other person in the household for which the individual has primary
19 caregiving responsibility is unable to attend school or another facility that is closed as
20 a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency and such school or facility
21 care is required for the individual to work;
- 22 (e) The individual is unable to reach the place of employment because of a quarantine
23 imposed as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency;
- 24 (f) The individual is unable to reach the place of employment because the individual has 25 been advised by a health care provider to quarantine due to concerns related to
26 COVID-19;
- 27 (g) The individual was scheduled to commence employment and does not have a job or is 28 unable to reach the job as a direct result of the COVID-19 public health emergency;
- (h) The individual has become the breadwinner or major support for a household because the health of the household has died as a direct result of COVID-19;
- (i) The individual has to quit his or her job as a direct result of COVID-19;
- (j) The individual's place of employment is closed as a direct result of the COVID-19
public health emergency; or
- (k) The individual is an independent contractor who is unemployed (total or partial) or is unable or unavailable to work because of the COVID-19 public health emergency has severely limited his or her ability to continue performing the customary job.

¹³ This is not at issue in this case.

1 Based on the evidence and testimony provided, it is clear that Appellant's employment was
2 affected as a direct result of COVID-19. Due to the threat of COVID-19 and pursuant to the 3 Governor's Executive Orders, there were closures of government offices, restrictions on private 4 businesses, and an overall reduction in revenue from the immediate halt in tourism. In the 5 beginning of March, Employer reduced business hours and partially closed the establishment.
6 Accordingly, Appellant's employment was directly affected by a COVID-19 reason from March 7 9, 2020 to August 2020.

8 3. Appellant is not a qualified alien eligible for PUA.

9 PUA and FPUC are federal public benefits as defined by 8 USC §1611(c). As a condition of
10 eligibility for any federal public benefit, the claimant must be a "qualified alien" at the time
11 relevant to the claim. 8 USC §1611(a). Pursuant to 8 USC §1641, the term "qualified alien" is:

- 12 1. An alien admitted for permanent residence under the Immigration and Nationality Act
13 (INA);
- 14 2. An alien granted asylum under § 208 of the INA;
- 15 3. A refugee admitted to the US under § 207 of the INA;
- 16 4. An alien paroled into the US under § 212(d)(5) of the INA for at least one year;
- 17 5. An alien whose deportation is being withheld under § 243(h) of the INA ... or whose 18 removal is being withheld under § 241 (b)(3) of the INA;
- 19 6. An alien granted conditional entry pursuant to § 203 (a)(7) of the INA;
- 20 7. An alien who is a Cuban or Haitian entrant as defined in § 501(e) of the Refugee
21 Education Assistance Act of 1980; or
- 22 8. An alien who (or whose child or parent) has been battered or subject to extreme cruelty
23 in the U.S. and otherwise satisfies the requirements of § 431(c) of the Act.

24 Here, Appellant makes no argument or attempt to identify which provision of the qualified
25 alien definition she fits into. Appellant simply provided a copy of her EAD card and indicated
26 she has applied for permanent residency. When asked for additional evidence to establish 27 Appellant's argument, Appellant had no other documents. When questioned with regards to each 28 provision of the qualified alien statute, as listed above, Appellant stated she was not a permanent resident, alien granted asylum, refugee, alien paroled into the U.S. for at least one year, an alien pending deportation or removal, an alien granted conditional entry, a Cuban or Haitian entrant, or an alien battered or subject to extreme cruelty.

Based on the evidence and testimony provided, Appellant does not meet the definition of a qualified alien. First, the SAVE results indicate that Appellant is an EAD, Category C09.

1 Category C09 is a code that USCIS utilizes for applicants pending an adjustment in status. While
2 the undersigned recognizes that Appellant has a pending application or petition with USCIS, said
3 petition has not been approved or granted. Pending applications are insufficient to establish a
4 qualified alien status. In conclusion, Appellant was not a qualified alien at the time of the weeks
5 she is claiming PUA benefits and is not currently a qualified alien.

6 VI. ORDER

7 For the reasons stated above, it is ORDERED that:

- 8 1. The CNMI Department of Labor's Determination is AFFIRMED; and
9 2. The Appellant is NOT ELIGIBLE to receive PUA benefits for the period of March 8,
10 2020 to December 26, 2020.

11 Instructions and appeal rights with respect to second level appeals are pending clarification
12 from U.S. Department of Labor. Until then, any party aggrieved by this Order may request a
13 second level appeal with a signed letter indicating why he or she disagrees with the decision. The
14 letter may be submitted to the Administrative Hearing Office in person (Building #1357, Mednilla
15 Ave) or electronically mailed to hearing@dol.gov.mp. Further action regarding second level
16 appeals will remain pending until further guidance from U.S. Department of Labor.

17 So ordered this 13th day of October, 2020.

¹ Due to Appellant’s lack of phone or internet, Appellant was allowed to enter the Administrative Hearing Office. Appellant utilized the phone and online services in a private hearing room. In order to maintain precautionary health measures, Department employees did not enter the small room and appeared by telephone and online.

² Appellant was offered language services but denied the need for an interpreter or translator.

II. JURISDICTION

On March 27, 2020, the Coronavirus Aid Relief and Economic Security ("CARES") Act of 2020 was signed into law creating new temporary federal programs for unemployment benefits called Pandemic Unemployment Assistance ("PUA")³ and Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation ("FPUC").⁴ On March 29, 2020, the CNMI Government executed an agreement with the US Secretary of Labor to operate the PUA and FPUC program in accordance to applicable law.⁵ The CNMI Department of Labor is charged with the responsibility in administering the above-mentioned programs in the CNMI. The CNMI Department of Labor Administrative Hearing Office has been designated to preside over first level appeals of the aforesaid programs. Upon review of the records, the appeal was timely filed. Accordingly, jurisdiction is established.

III. PROCEDURAL HISTORY & ISSUE

Appellant filed a claim for unemployment benefits under the PUA and FPUC programs for work weeks ending February 15, 2020 to October 10, 2020. Upon review of Appellant's application and supporting documents, the Department issued its initial determination on September 22, 2020. The Department's determination found the Appellant was not a U.S. Citizen, non-national citizen, or qualified alien and denied benefits effective February 9, 2020 to December 26, 2020. Appellant filed the present appeal on September 24, 2020.⁶ The issue on appeal is whether Appellant is a qualified alien eligible for PUA.⁷

IV. FINDINGS OF FACT

In consideration of the evidence provided and credibility of witness testimony, the undersigned issues the following findings of fact:

³ See Section 2102 of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136.

⁴ See Section 2104 of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136.

⁶ The basis of Appeal is frivolous. Here, Appellant is only filing an appeal because His friends got PUA while he didn't. Appellants submits to evidence to show he is qualified or to rebut the determination.

⁷ During the Administrative Hearing, Appellant testified as to potential overpayment issues and PUA funds previously received. Accordingly, this matter shall be referred to the Department's Benefit Payment Control Unit for further investigation.

- 1 Appellant entered the CNMI as a Commonwealth Only-Transitional Worker ("CW-1").
2 Appellant was authorized to work in the CNMI as a CW-1 from January 8, 2020 to September
3 30, 2020.⁸
- 4 2. On or around September 17, 2020, the Department entered Appellant's information into the 5 Systematic Alien Verification for Entitlements (SAVE) database maintained by USCIS,
6 Verification Division. This database is used to determine the alien status of PUA applicants
7 so only those entitled to benefits receive them. The SAVE results indicate that Appellant was 8 a CW-1 until September 30, 2020.⁹
- 9 3. The SAVE results also indicate that Appellant has a pending CW-1 petition that has yet to be 10 granted. Appellant has no proof or supporting documentation to prove that he is currently 11 authorized to be or to work in the CNMI.
- 12 4. The Department issued a Determination disqualifying Appellant for PUA because he is not a 13 US Citizen, non-citizen national, or qualified alien. Appellant appealed the determination 14 simply because he knows other CW-1's who received PUA.
- 15 5. Appellant is not a permanent resident, alien granted asylum, refugee, alien paroled into the 16 U.S. for at least one year, an alien pending deportation or removal, an alien granted conditional 17 entry, a Cuban or Haitian entrant, or an alien battered or subject to extreme cruelty.
- 18 6. Appellant has no other documents to rebut the SAVE verification.

19 V. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

20 In consideration of the above-stated findings and applicable law, the undersigned issues the 21 following conclusions of law:

- 22 1. Appellant is not a qualified alien eligible for PUA.

23 PUA and FPUC are federal public benefits as defined by 8 USC §1611(c). As a condition of 24 eligibility for any federal public benefit, the claimant must be a "qualified alien" at the time relevant 25 to the claim. 8 USC §1611(a). Pursuant to 8 USC §1641, the term "qualified alien" is:

- 26 1. An alien admitted for permanent residence under the Immigration and Nationality Act
27 (INA);
- 28 2. An alien granted asylum under § 208 of the INA;
3. A refugee admitted to the US under § 207 of the INA;
4. An alien paroled into the US under § 212(d)(5) of the INA for at least one year;

⁸ Exhibit 1.

⁹ Exhibit 2.

5. An alien whose deportation is being withheld under § 243(h) of the INA ... or whose removal is being withheld under § 241 (b)(3) of the INA;
6. An alien granted conditional entry pursuant to § 203 (a)(7) of the INA;
7. An alien who is a Cuban or Haitian entrant as defined in § 501(e) of the Refugee Education Assistance Act of 1980; or
8. An alien who (or whose child or parent) has been battered or subject to extreme cruelty in the U.S. and otherwise satisfies the requirements of § 431(c) of the Act.

Here, Appellant makes no argument or attempt to identify which provision of the qualified alien definition he fits into. When asked for additional evidence to establish Appellant's argument, Appellant had no other documents. When questioned with regards to each provision of the qualified alien statute, as listed above, Appellant stated he was not a permanent resident, alien granted asylum, refugee, alien paroled into the U.S. for at least one year, an alien pending deportation or removal, an alien granted conditional entry, a Cuban or Haitian entrant, or an alien battered or subject to extreme cruelty. When asked whether he was currently authorized to work in the CNMI, Appellant could not rebut the documents proving he is currently not authorized to work in the CNMI.¹⁰ In conclusion, Appellant was not a qualified alien at the time of the weeks he is claiming PUA benefits and is not currently able and available to work.

VI. ORDER

For the reasons stated above, it is ORDERED that:

1. The CNMI Department of Labor's Determination is AFFIRMED; and
2. The Appellant is NOT ELIGIBLE to receive PUA benefits for the period of February 9, 2020 to December 26, 2020.

Instructions and appeal rights with respect to second level appeals are pending clarification from U.S. Department of Labor. Until then, any party aggrieved by this Order may request a second level appeal with a signed letter indicating why he or she disagrees with the decision. The letter may be submitted to the Administrative Hearing Office in person (Building #1357, Mednilla Ave) or electronically mailed to hearing@dol.gov.mp. Further action regarding second level appeals will remain pending until further guidance from U.S. Department of Labor.

So ordered this 13th day of October, 2020.

In consideration of the above-stated findings and applicable law, the undersigned issues the following conclusions of law:

1. Appellant is not a qualified alien eligible for PUA.

⁵ An EAD is a work permit that allows noncitizens to work in the United States.

⁶ Exhibit 1.

⁷ Exhibit 2.

⁸ Exhibit 3.

1 PUA and FPUC are federal public benefits as defined by 8 USC §1611(c). As a condition of
2 eligibility for any federal public benefit, the claimant must be a “qualified alien” at the time
3 relevant to the claim. 8 USC §1611(a). Pursuant to 8 USC §1641, the term “qualified alien” is:

- 4 1. An alien admitted for permanent residence under the Immigration and Nationality Act
5 (INA);
- 6 2. An alien granted asylum under § 208 of the INA;
- 7 3. A refugee admitted to the US under § 207 of the INA;
- 8 4. An alien paroled into the US under § 212(d)(5) of the INA for at least one year;
- 9 5. An alien whose deportation is being withheld under § 243(h) of the INA ... or whose
10 removal is being withheld under § 241 (b)(3) of the INA;
- 11 6. An alien granted conditional entry pursuant to § 203 (a)(7) of the INA;
- 12 7. An alien who is a Cuban or Haitian entrant as defined in § 501(e) of the Refugee
13 Education Assistance Act of 1980; or
- 14 8. An alien who (or whose child or parent) has been battered or subject to extreme cruelty
15 in the U.S. and otherwise satisfies the requirements of § 431(c) of the Act.

16 Here, Appellant makes no argument or attempt to identify which provision of the qualified
17 alien definition She fits into. When asked for additional evidence to establish Appellant’s 18 argument, Appellant had no other documents to satisfy the above-stated definitions. When 19 questioned with regards to each provision of the qualified alien statute, as listed above, Appellant
20 stated she was not a permanent resident, alien granted asylum, refugee, alien paroled into the U.S.
21 for at least one year, an alien pending deportation or removal, an alien granted conditional entry,
22 a Cuban or Haitian entrant, or an alien battered or subject to extreme cruelty.

23 Based on the evidence and testimony provided, Appellant does not meet the definition of a
24 qualified alien. First, the SAVE results indicate that Appellant is an EAD, Category C09.
25 Category C09 is a code that USCIS utilizes for applicants pending an adjustment in status. While
26 the undersigned recognizes that Appellant has a pending application or petition with USCIS, said
27 petition has not been approved or granted. Pending applications are insufficient to establish a
28 qualified alien status. In conclusion, Appellant was not a qualified alien at the time of the weeks
she is claiming PUA benefits and is not currently a qualified alien.

I. INTRODUCTION

This matter came before the undersigned for an Administrative Hearing on October 15, 2020 at 1:30 p.m. at the Administrative Hearing Office. Due to the ongoing COVID-19 public health emergency, the hearing was held telephonically. Appellant Elvie B. Codia ("Appellant") was present and self-represented. Appellee CNMI Department of Labor Division of Employment Services – Pandemic Unemployment Assistance program ("Appellee" or "Department") was present and represented by PUA Supervisor Jake Maratita and Labor Certification Worker Dennis Cabrera. There were no other witnesses who gave testimony at the hearing.

Exhibits:

1. Exhibit 1: Copy of Appellant's Employment Certification
2. Exhibit 2: Parolee Card
3. Exhibit 3: Copy of Appellant's EAD Card (Valid from 6/4/2020 to 6/29/2020)
4. Exhibit 4: Copy of Appellant's previous EAD cards
5. Exhibit 5: Copy of Appellant's previous Parolee Cards
6. Exhibit 6: Copy of Department's SAVE Results¹

¹ Appellant objected to the SAVE results because the search was initiated using Appellant's previous EAD card number. Appellant's objection was overruled because the remaining identifiers like Appellant's name, date of birth, and alien number were also used to identify and pull records for Appellant. Further, the Department testified that the correct information pulled the most up to date information and the typo would not have affected the results.

1 For the reasons stated below, the Department's Determination dated September 29, 2020 is
2 AFFIRMED. Claimant is not eligible for benefits for the period of April 5, 2020 to December

4 II. JURISDICTION

5 On March 27, 2020, the Coronavirus Aid Relief and Economic Security ("CARES") Act of 6 2020 was signed into law creating new temporary federal programs for unemployment benefits
7 called Pandemic Unemployment Assistance ("PUA")² and Federal Pandemic Unemployment
8 Compensation ("FPUC").³ On March 29, 2020, the CNMI Government executed an agreement
9 with the US Secretary of Labor to operate the PUA and FPUC program in accordance to
10 applicable law.⁴ The CNMI Department of Labor is charged with the responsibility in
11 administering the above-mentioned programs in the CNMI. The CNMI Department of Labor
12 Administrative Hearing Office has been designated to preside over first level appeals of the 13 aforesaid programs. Upon review of the records, the appeal was timely filed. Accordingly,
14 jurisdiction is established.

15 III. PROCEDURAL HISTORY & ISSUE

16 Appellant filed a claim for unemployment benefits under the PUA and FPUC programs. Upon
17 review of Appellant's application and supporting documents, the Department issued its initial
18 determination on September 24, 2020 with a mail date of September 29, 2020. The Department's
19 determination found the Appellant was not a U.S. Citizen, non-national citizen, or qualified alien
20 and denied benefits effective April 5, 2020 to December 26, 2020. Appellant filed the present
21 appeal on September 29, 2020. The issues on appeal is whether Appellant is a qualified alien
22 eligible for PUA.

23 IV. FINDINGS OF FACT

24 In consideration of the evidence provided and credibility of witness testimony, the 25 undersigned issues the following findings of fact:
26

27 ² See Section 2102 of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136.

28 ³ See Section 2104 of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136.

⁴ Pursuant to Section 2102(h) of the CARES Act of 2020 (Pub. L. 116-136) and 20 CFR § 625.2(r)(1)(ii), the CNMI Governor issued Executive Order No. 2020-09 declaring Hawaii Employment Security Law as the applicable state law in the CNMI. Hawaii state law applies, to the extent it does not conflict with applicable federal law and guidance.

1. Prior to the pandemic, Appellant was employed as a Delivery Driver at Younis Art Studio, Inc. ("Employer") located in Garapan, Saipan. Appellant regularly worked 20 hours per week at a rate of $7.65 per hour.⁵
2. For the safety of its employees, Employer temporarily locked down operations. As a result of the economic impact of COVID-19, Employer issued furloughs and reduced Appellant's working hours to zero, effective April 6, 2020.⁶
3. Appellant has not been recalled to work or otherwise returned to the workforce. Appellant has had no other work or income to report since being furloughed by Employer.
4. Appellant applied for PUA claiming weeks after April 6, 2020.
5. On September 24, 2020, the Department issued a determination with the mail date of September 29, 2010. The determination disqualified Appellant from PUA benefits because Appellant was not a U.S. Citizen, Non-citizen National, or a Qualified Alien at the time she was claiming benefits.
6. On September 29, 2020, Appellant filed the present appeal arguing that she was a qualified alien.
7. Application has a series of CBP Form 1-94 cards showing she was paroled in the U.S. on for the following periods:⁷
 - a. August 30, 2012 through December 31, 2012;
 - b. December 11, 2012 through December 31, 2014;
 - c. December 22, 2014 through December 31, 2016;
 - d. January 7, 2017 through December 31, 2018; and
 - e. October 29, 2019 through June 29, 2020.
8. Additionally, Appellant was granted employment authorization with the Category C11. Appellant has Employment Authorization Document ("EAD")⁸ cards valid for the following periods:⁹
 - a. March 7, 2014 to December 31, 2014;
 - b. March 2, 2015 to March 1, 2016;

⁷ Exhibit 2 and Exhibit 5.

⁸ An EAD is a work permit that allows noncitizens to work in the United States.

⁹ Exhibit 4.

- c. December 31, 2016 to January 30, 2017;
- d. January 30, 2017 to June 29, 2019; and
- e. June 4, 2020 to June 29, 2020.

9. Appellant applied for permanent residency in June 2020. Appellant's application was received by U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) in July 2020. Appellant's application for permanent residency is still pending and has not been granted.

10. Appellant's employment authorization was extended by 180 days.¹⁰

11. On or around September 14, 2020, the Department entered Appellant's information into the Systematic Alien Verification for Entitlements (SAVE) database maintained by USCIS, Verification Division. This database is used to determine the alien status of PUA applicants so only those entitled to benefits receive them. The SAVE results indicate that Appellant has a pending application and presently granted EAD Category C11 for June 4, 2020 to June 29, 2020.¹¹

12. The Department issued a Determination disqualifying Appellant for PUA because she is not a US Citizen, non-citizen national, or qualified alien.

13. Appellant appealed under the assumption she is a qualified alien.

14. Appellant is not a permanent resident, alien granted asylum, refugee, alien paroled into the U.S. for at least one consecutive year during the pandemic assistance period, an alien pending deportation or removal, an alien granted conditional entry, a Cuban or Haitian entrant, or an alien battered or subject to extreme cruelty.

15. Appellant has no other documents to rebut the SAVE verification.

V. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

In consideration of the above-stated findings and applicable law, the undersigned issues the following conclusions of law:

¹⁰ On August 11, 2020, USCIS issued a press release that it would automatically extend parole and employment authorization if applicable, for parolees who timely applied for the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands (CNMI) long-term resident status.

¹¹ Exhibit 6.

1 1. Appellant is not a qualified alien eligible for PUA.

2 PUA and FPUC are federal public benefits as defined by 8 USC §1611(c). As a condition of
3 eligibility for any federal public benefit, the claimant must be a “qualified alien” at the time
4 relevant to the claim. 8 USC §1611(a). Pursuant to 8 USC §1641, the term “qualified alien” is:

- 5 1. An alien admitted for permanent residence under the Immigration and Nationality Act
6 (INA);
7 2. An alien granted asylum under § 208 of the INA;
8 3. A refugee admitted to the US under § 207 of the INA;
9 4. An alien paroled into the US under § 212(d)(5) of the INA for at least one year;
10 5. An alien whose deportation is being withheld under § 243(h) of the INA ... or whose
11 removal is being withheld under § 241 (b)(3) of the INA;
12 6. An alien granted conditional entry pursuant to § 203 (a)(7) of the INA;
13 7. An alien who is a Cuban or Haitian entrant as defined in § 501(e) of the Refugee
14 Education Assistance Act of 1980; or
15 8. An alien who (or whose child or parent) has been battered or subject to extreme cruelty
16 in the U.S. and otherwise satisfies the requirements of § 431(c) of the Act.

17 Here, Appellant argues she is a qualified alien because she is a Parolee with an EAD Category
18 C11 since 2012. Category C11 is a USCIS EAD code used to denote an alien paroled in the United
19 States in the public interest or temporarily for emergency reasons. Category C11 fits into the 20 parolee provision of the Qualified Alien definition, provided the one-year requirement is met.
21 Multiple time periods cannot be combined to meet the one-year requirement.

22 The undersigned finds that Appellant has insufficient evidence to establish she is a qualified
23 alien, as defined above. Based on the evidence and testimony provided, Appellant was admitted
24 into the U.S. as a parolee and granted employment authorization during multiple periods, dating
25 back to 2012. However, there was a break or gap in her status from her EAD expiration in June 26 29, 2019 to her Parolee admission in October 29, 2019. Appellant admits she did not have any 27 status during that period. Since the Appellant may not aggregate multiple time periods to meet
28 the one year requirement, she cannot be considered paroled into the US under §212(d)(5) of the INA for at least one year during the assistance period of the PUA program until one year after October 29, 2019.¹²

October 30, 2020.

1 Based on the evidence and testimony provided, Appellant does not meet the definition of a
2 qualified alien. As discussed above, Appellant does not meet the one-year requirement for
3 parolees admitted into the U.S. Further, when questioned with regards to each of the other
4 provisions of the qualified alien statute, as listed above, Appellant stated she was not a permanent
5 resident, alien granted asylum, refugee, an alien pending deportation or removal, an alien granted
6 conditional entry, a Cuban or Haitian entrant, or an alien battered or subject to extreme cruelty.
7 In conclusion, Appellant was not a qualified alien during the claimed weeks and she is not
8 currently a qualified alien.

9 VI. ORDER

10 For the reasons stated above, it is ORDERED that:

- 11 1. The CNMI Department of Labor's Determination is AFFIRMED; and
- 12 2. The Appellant is NOT ELIGIBLE to receive PUA benefits for the period of April 5, 13 2020 to December 26, 2020.

14 Instructions and appeal rights with respect to second level appeals are pending clarification
15 from U.S. Department of Labor. Until then, any party aggrieved by this Order may request a
16 second level appeal with a signed letter indicating why he or she disagrees with the decision. The
17 letter may be submitted to the Administrative Hearing Office in person (Building #1357, Mednilla
18 Ave) or electronically mailed to hearing@dol.gov.mp. Further action regarding second level
19 appeals will remain pending until further guidance from U.S. Department of Labor.

20 So ordered this 19th day of October, 2020.

1 For the reasons stated below, the Department's Determination dated September 29, 2020 is 2 AFFIRMED. Based on the claim filed, Appellant is not eligible for benefits for the period of 3 March 22, 2020 to December 26, 2020.

4 II. JURISDICTION

5 On March 27, 2020, the Coronavirus Aid Relief and Economic Security ("CARES") Act of

12 Administrative Hearing Office has been designated to preside over first level appeals of the 13 aforesaid programs. Upon review of the records, the appeal was timely filed. Accordingly,
14 jurisdiction is established.

15 III. PROCEDURAL HISTORY & ISSUE

16 Appellant filed a claim for unemployment benefits under the PUA and FPUC programs. Upon
17 review of Appellant's application and supporting documents, the Department issued its initial
18 determination on September 22, 2020 with a mail date of September 29, 2020. The Department's
19 determination found the Appellant was not a U.S. Citizen, non-national citizen, or qualified alien
20 and denied benefits effective March 22, 2020 to December 26, 2020. Appellant filed the present
21 appeal on September 30, 2020. The issues on appeal is whether Appellant is a qualified alien
22 eligible for PUA.

23 IV. FINDINGS OF FACT

24 In consideration of the evidence provided and credibility of witness testimony, the 25 undersigned issues the following findings of fact:
26

² See Section 2104 of the CARES Act of 2020, Public Law 116-136.

28 ³ Pursuant to Section 2102(h) of the CARES Act of 2020 (Pub. L. 116-136) and 20 CFR § 625.2(r)(1)(ii), the CNMI Governor issued Executive Order No. 2020-09 declaring Hawaii Employment Security Law as the applicable state law in the CNMI. Hawaii state law applies, to the extent it does not conflict with applicable federal law and guidance.

1. Prior to the pandemic, Appellant was employed as a waitstaff at Pacific Island Club, Inc. ("Employer") located in San Antonio, Saipan. Appellant regularly worked 40 hours per week at a rate of $7.70 per hour.⁴
2. Due to the economic impact of and financial difficulties of COVID-19, Employer suspended operations and reduced operations. As a result, Appellant's hours were reduced to 20 hours effective, February 27, 2020. Subsequently, Appellant was furloughed effective June 20, 2020 and laid-off effective August 1, 2020.⁵ Appellant was rehired September 16, 2020 as waitstaff on a "on call basis."⁶ While the terms of her contract are unknown, Appellant testifies to working approximately 2.5 hours a week.
3. Appellant applied for PUA claiming weeks from March 22, 2020 to present.
4. On September 22, 2020, the Department issued a determination with the mail date of September 29, 2010. The determination disqualified Appellant from PUA benefits because it deemed that Appellant was not paroled into the U.S. under 212(d)(5) of the INA for at least one year at the time of the pandemic.
5. On September 30, 2020, Appellant filed the present appeal arguing that she was a qualified alien.
6. Application has a series of CBP Form 1-94 cards showing she was paroled in the U.S. on for the following periods:⁷
 - a. March 15, 2012 through December 31, 2012;
 - b. November 12, 2014 through December 31, 2014;
 - c. November 15, 2014, 2014 through December 31, 2016;
 - d. January 11, 2017 through December 31, 2018; and
 - e. October 29, 2019 through June 29, 2020.
7. Additionally, Appellant was granted employment authorization with the Category C11. Appellant has Employment Authorization Document ("EAD")⁸ cards valid for the following periods:⁹

⁴ Exhibit 1.

⁵ Exhibit 2 and Exhibit 3.

⁶ Exhibit 4.

⁷ Exhibit 6.

⁸ An EAD is a work permit that allows noncitizens to work in the United States.

⁹ Exhibit 5.

- a. November 25, 2015 through December 31, 2016;
 - b. December 8, 2017 through December 31, 2018;
 - c. December 8, 2017 through June 29, 2019; and
 - d. January 16, 2020 through June 29, 2020.
8. Appellant applied for permanent residency in May of 2020. Appellant's application was received by U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) but the application is either pending or under review. Appellant is not currently a permanent resident.
 9. Appellant's employment authorization was extended by 180 days.¹⁰
 10. On or around September 14, 2020, the Department entered Appellant's information into the Systematic Alien Verification for Entitlements (SAVE) database maintained by USCIS, Verification Division. This database is used to determine the alien status of PUA applicants so only those entitled to benefits receive them. The SAVE results indicate that Appellant has a pending application and presently paroled into the U.S. with a valid CBP Form I-94 dated October 29, 2019 to June 29, 2020.¹¹
 11. The Department issued a Determination disqualifying Appellant for PUA because she is not a US Citizen, non-citizen national, or qualified alien.
 12. Appellant appealed under the assumption she is a qualified alien.
 13. Appellant is not a permanent resident, alien granted asylum, refugee, alien paroled into the U.S. for at least one consecutive year during the pandemic assistance period, an alien pending deportation or removal, an alien granted conditional entry, a Cuban or Haitian entrant, or an alien battered or subject to extreme cruelty.
 14. Appellant has no other documents to rebut the SAVE verification or account for the gaps in her parolee status.

V. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

In consideration of the above-stated findings and applicable law, the undersigned issues the following conclusions of law:

¹⁰ On August 11, 2020, USCIS issued a press release that it would automatically extend parole and employment authorization if applicable, for parolees who timely applied for the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands (CNMI) long-term resident status.

¹¹ Exhibit 7.

1 1. Appellant is not a qualified alien eligible for PUA.

2 PUA and FPUC are federal public benefits as defined by 8 USC §1611(c). As a condition of
3 eligibility for any federal public benefit, the claimant must be a “qualified alien” at the time
4 relevant to the claim. 8 USC §1611(a). Pursuant to 8 USC §1641, the term “qualified alien” is:

- 5 1. An alien admitted for permanent residence under the Immigration and Nationality Act
6 (INA);
7 2. An alien granted asylum under § 208 of the INA;
8 3. A refugee admitted to the US under § 207 of the INA;
9 4. An alien paroled into the US under § 212(d)(5) of the INA for at least one year;
10 5. An alien whose deportation is being withheld under § 243(h) of the INA ... or whose
11 removal is being withheld under § 241 (b)(3) of the INA;
12 6. An alien granted conditional entry pursuant to § 203 (a)(7) of the INA;
13 7. An alien who is a Cuban or Haitian entrant as defined in § 501(e) of the Refugee
14 Education Assistance Act of 1980; or
15 8. An alien who (or whose child or parent) has been battered or subject to extreme cruelty
16 in the U.S. and otherwise satisfies the requirements of § 431(c) of the Act.

17 Here, Appellant argues she is a qualified alien because she is a Parolee with an EAD Category
18 C11 since 2012. Category C11 is a USCIS EAD code used to denote an alien paroled in the United
19 States in the public interest or temporarily for emergency reasons. Category C11 fits into the 20 parolee provision of the Qualified Alien definition, provided the one-year requirement is met.
21 Multiple time periods cannot be combined to meet the one-year requirement.

22 The undersigned finds that Appellant has insufficient evidence to establish she is a qualified
23 alien, as defined above. Based on the evidence and testimony provided, Appellant was admitted
24 into the U.S. as a parolee and granted employment authorization during multiple periods, dating
25 back to 2012. However, there was a break or gap in her parolee status because December 31, 2018
26 to October 29, 2019. Appellant admits she did not have any status during that period. Since the 27 Appellant may not aggregate multiple time periods to meet the one year requirement, she cannot 28 be considered paroled into the US under §212(d)(5) of the INA for at least one year during the assistance period of the PUA program until one year after October 29, 2019.¹²

¹² Assuming Appellant meets all other eligibility requirements of PUA, Appellant is encouraged to reapply after October 30, 2020.

1 Based on the evidence and testimony provided, Appellant does not meet the definition of a
2 qualified alien. As discussed above, Appellant does not meet the one-year requirement for
3 parolees admitted into the U.S. Further, when questioned with regards to each of the other
4 provisions of the qualified alien statute, as listed above, Appellant stated she was not a permanent
5 resident, alien granted asylum, refugee, an alien pending deportation or removal, an alien granted
6 conditional entry, a Cuban or Haitian entrant, or an alien battered or subject to extreme cruelty.
7 In conclusion, Appellant was not a qualified alien during the claimed weeks and she is not
8 currently a qualified alien.

9 VI. ORDER

10 For the reasons stated above, it is ORDERED that:

- 11 1. The CNMI Department of Labor's Determination is AFFIRMED; and
- 12 2. The Appellant is NOT ELIGIBLE to receive PUA benefits for the period of March 22,
13 2020 to December 26, 2020.

14 Instructions and appeal rights with respect to second level appeals are pending clarification
15 from U.S. Department of Labor. Until then, any party aggrieved by this Order may request a
16 second level appeal with a signed letter indicating why he or she disagrees with the decision. The
17 letter may be submitted to the Administrative Hearing Office in person (Building #1357, Mednilla
18 Ave) or electronically mailed to hearing@dol.gov.mp. Further action regarding second level
19 appeals will remain pending until further guidance from U.S. Department of Labor.

20 So ordered this 20th day of October, 2020.

On October 6, 2020, Complainant Haisong Chen ("Complainant") filed a written request to withdraw, or voluntarily dismiss, the complaint in the above-captioned matter. On September 29, 2020, Complainant initiated a labor case against Respondent for a violation of the employment preference law. Generally, the employment preference law requires CNMI employers to give preferential employment opportunities to U.S. citizens, U.S. permanent residents, and CNMI permanent residents. 3 CMC §§ 4521 et. seq. The complainant has no allegations to support this claim. Further, Complainant is a foreign national worker and has no standing to sue with regards to employment preference.¹ Additional allegations cannot cure deficiencies in standing. Ultimately, the complaint is devoid of merit and cannot succeed. Accordingly, pursuant to 3 CMC § 4947(a), the complaint is hereby DISMISSED, sua sponte.

So ordered this 7th day of October, 2020.
