

COMMONWEALTH OF THE
NORTHERN MARIANA ISLANDS
OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

2024 ANNUAL REPORT

Edward E. Manibusan

Attorney General of the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands

As I look back on the past year, I once again reflect on the honor of serving you as your Attorney General. As always, I hold the position of Attorney General in the highest regard, and I am deeply humbled by your continued support. This position has reaffirmed my commitment to working tirelessly on behalf of our community to continue upholding the values of justice, fairness, and equality for the benefit of the people of our Commonwealth.

This report highlights the dedication and hard work of the attorneys and the Office of the Attorney General staff. I take pride in the achievements presented in this Annual Report, which demonstrate our commitment to providing expert legal services to the executive branch of our government agencies and to the people of the Commonwealth. Our office continues to provide legal advice to the Executive Branch, autonomous agencies, and public corporations, including providing feedback on proposed legislation to the Legislative Branch of our government. We remain committed to collaborating with various government agencies of our government to ensure that we provide the essential services to the people of the Commonwealth.

Our office remains committed to pursuing and prosecuting both criminal and civil activities and is steadfast in its mission to protect our citizens from unlawful actions.

As I look ahead, I will continue to work earnestly for the people of the Commonwealth, and I welcome your ideas and input on how the Office of the Attorney General can better serve you and our community. As your Attorney General, I will remain dedicated to the rule of law, maintain honesty and transparency, and provide steady and consistent leadership for the benefit of the people of the Commonwealth.

Advisory Opinions and Legislative Comments

January – December 2024

The Office of the Attorney General (OAG) provides essential guidance for the Governor, and government departments and agencies in the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands (CNMI). Through the issuance of advisory opinions, the Attorney General plays a pivotal role in shaping the legal landscape, covering areas such as legislation, administrative law, regulatory compliance, and litigation. The ensuing statistics highlight the significant impact and importance of the OAG's advisory opinions.

Alison Nelson

Chief, Civil Division

April 8, 2022 – Present

In 2024, the Civil Division resolved important civil matters, including:

- Settlement of an appeal challenging an employee’s termination for failure to comply with an executive order requiring COVID-19 vaccination;
- Dismissal of Rota Resort LLC’s appeal of its lease termination;
- Substitution of the Commonwealth and dismissal of tort claims against employees in their individual capacities;
- Settlement and dismissal of several inmate lawsuits against the Commonwealth and its employees; and
- Entry of settlements in other cases to resolve disputes without the continued time and expense of ongoing litigation.

The Civil Division also took various actions to enforce Commonwealth Law and uphold the NMI Commonwealth Constitution including:

- Application for orders in aid of judgment to collect on judgments in favor of the Commonwealth, including default judgments to collect penalties from businesses violating environmental laws, and unlawful payments of overtime or premium pay from gubernatorial appointees for time worked during Typhoon Yutu.

Notably, the Division pursued claims against the Imperial Pacific International (CNMI), LLC bankruptcy estate, including its outstanding tax debt, casino regulatory fees, and annual license fees.

Civil Division attorneys assisted CUC with filing claims in multi-district litigation to participate in approved settlements by several manufacturers of per- and polyfluorinated substances (PFAS).

In response to the nationwide opioid crisis and as a part of a collective legal effort, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands enacted Public Law 23-19 to officially establish the Opioid Proceeds Council (“OPC”). The OPC serves as the designated authority to manage, distribute, and oversee the use of the opioid settlement funds that the CNMI receives for the abatement and remediation of opioid and substance use disorders in the Commonwealth. The Council’s role is to ensure that the opioid funds received are allocated and utilized to support efforts that reduce the harm caused by opioids. The Council is committed to ensuring that the opioid settlement funds are directed toward meaningful, community-centered solutions that help address addiction, promote recovery, and save lives.

The Civil Division is actively working towards finalizing adjustments related to the Non-Participating Manufacturer (NPM) provisions under the tobacco settlement. This involves thorough review and coordination to ensure compliance with the Master Settlement Agreement (MSA), while also addressing financial impacts and regulatory obligations. The goal is to reach a balanced resolution that supports enforcement efforts and maintains the integrity of the settlement process.

Its attorneys also represented the Commonwealth and CUC in a status conference before Judge David Carter overseeing CUC’s compliance with two stipulated orders, including collection of payment on outstanding agency accounts.

Division attorneys also prevailed in administrative proceedings before various agency commissions and review boards, including appeals to the Civil Service Commission seeking review of employee terminations and challenges before the Department of Public Lands hearing officer with respect to land compensation disputes and to homestead revocations for failure to comply with permit requirements.

The Civil Division advises the Office of the Governor and the executive branch of the Commonwealth, including all public corporations and autonomous agencies on all civil and administrative matters. The Division’s team of assistant attorneys general (ranging in size from 10-14 attorneys from time to time) works tirelessly to review legislation, proposed regulations and policies, and proposed leases and contracts, as well as to advise Commonwealth agencies regarding employment matters, land claims, permitting, and all other issues facing the Commonwealth. The Division also provides legal representation to the executive branch departments and agencies in all ongoing civil litigation and administrative matters as needed.

Robby Glass

Chief, Solicitor Division

July 11, 2020 – Present

The Office of the Chief Solicitor is a division within the Office of the Attorney General. The Chief Solicitor is responsible for supervising and approving all appellate litigation for the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands and for ensuring consistency in legal positions taken by the Commonwealth. The Office of the Chief Solicitor is responsible for handling the appeals deemed most significant to the Commonwealth's interests and the development of federal and Commonwealth jurisprudence. Additionally, the Chief Solicitor provides legal review of pending legislation, handles litigation, advises both civil and criminal litigators, and advises various CNMI agencies. The Office of the Chief Solicitor also provides guidance to CNMI agencies through Attorney General opinions. The Chief Solicitor reviews potential issues in the Supreme Court of the United States, The Ninth Circuit, and the Commonwealth Supreme Court to see if the Commonwealth should intervene or appear as an amicus curiae.

United States Supreme Court:

- Yarofalchuw v. Cabrera & Fitial- Plaintiff's petition for writ of certiorari was denied by the Court, thus leaving in place the Ninth Circuit decision in favor of the two DPS officers.

U.S. Ninth Circuit Court Cases:

- Yarofalchuw v. Cabrera & Fitial, No. 23-15279- Ninth Circuit held that two officers did not violate the constitutional rights of Plaintiff when they arrested him at the top of his driveway when they had probable cause that a crime had been committed by the Plaintiff.

CNMI Supreme Court cases:

- Commonwealth v. Lisua- The NMI Supreme Court reversed the ruling of the Superior Court when the judge failed to properly hold and determine the admissibility of the Commonwealth's proposed expert. The Supreme Court remanded the case and required the Superior Court Judge to hold the proper Daubert hearing to determine admissibility.
- Reyes v. Commonwealth- NMI Supreme Court held that the Commonwealth's sovereign immunity is not a right to be free from trial and thus could not utilize the collateral order doctrine.
- Maratita v. CHCC and Pangelinan v. CHCC- the Supreme Court held that "heightened rational basis" was the standard under the NMI Constitution's equal protection clause, and that the Legislature's failure to provide sufficient data and make appropriate inquiry to justify the Government Liability Cap and the Tort Liability Cap rendered the caps unconstitutional.
- Appleby v. DOC and BOP- The NMI Supreme Court affirmed the trial court that DOC and BOP did not violate the Defendant's rights in revoking his parole.

Chester Hinds

Chief, Criminal Division

August 15, 2021 – Present

- Participated and continue to attend the Sexual Assault Response Team (SART) Legislative Committee Meetings which worked to draft a bill amending the language for current statutes related to sexual abuse/sexual assault of minors, such as adding a specific voyeurism statute, amending the age of consent, and adding a statute prohibiting sexual contact/activity between students and employees/contractors of K-12 educational institutions. The SART team has recognized the need to revisit Public Law 12-82 or the “Age of Consent” Sexual Assault of a Minor law. Currently, the law is written in a way that exhibits great complexities. The goal is to simplify its language to assure a unified understanding on the age of consent in the CNMI across service providers and the community as a whole.
- Guilty verdict: Secured a conviction in the jury trial of Commonwealth v. William Abraczinskas (Crim Case No. 23-0082) on charges of Sexual Assault in the First Degree, Assault and Battery, and Disturbing the Peace.
- Guilty verdict: Secured a conviction in the bench trial of Commonwealth v. Johnnie F. Kapileo (Traffic Case No. 22-00312-TR) on charges of DUI, Refusal to Submit to Test, Reckless Driving, Failure to Obey Traffic Signal, and No Driver’s License in Possession.
- Guilty verdict: Secured a conviction in the bench trial of Commonwealth v. Rangamar (Criminal Case No. 23-0089) on charges of Assault and Battery, Assault, and Disturbing the Peace.

Trainings and Presentations Facilitated:

- Chief Prosecutor Chester Hinds presented at the CNMI Customs Academy at the Northern Marianas College.
- AAG Frannie Demapan presented at the DPS Resource Workshop on how we handle the prosecution of DV/

SA cases, duties of law enforcement in DV cases, mandatory arrests in DV cases, and how patrol officers can improve their DV/SA cases.

Key Initiatives, Community Engagement & Outreach:

- We are committed to diligently defending the rights of all victims. This includes ensuring that a prosecutor meets with each victim promptly to discuss their needs and expectations, explain the case process, provide timely notifications of scheduled hearings, inform them about plea offers and trial proceedings, and address restitution payments. Most importantly, we will ensure that victims are treated with the utmost respect and dignity throughout the parole and probation process. Our office will continue to advocate strongly against early release applications for convicted felons, murderers, sex offenders, and other offenders, to uphold the interests of justice, the Commonwealth, and most importantly, to ensure that victims receive the justice they deserve.
- Provide consistent participation in the Judiciary’s Treatment Courts, such as Drug Court, Mental Health Court, and Juvenile Treatment Court. For example: Mental Health Court Division Workshops: quarterly interdisciplinary team meeting to discuss participants’ progress in tracks/phases.
- Expand community engagement and perform more community outreach with all of our collaborating agencies, providing direct services and continuity in advocating for and attending events such as Mock Trial, Sexual Assault Response Team (SART), Domestic Violence Awareness Month (DVAM), Sexual Assault Awareness Month (SAAM), Teen Dating Violence Awareness Month (TDVAM).

Consumer Complaints

The Office of the Consumer Counsel (OCC) promotes and protects the interests of CNMI consumers while ensuring a competent and fair marketplace. Consumer Complaint forms may be obtained www.cnmioag.org under the Consumer Protection section or in person at the Civil Division on Capitol Hill, or via email by sending a request to consumer_counsel@cnmioag.org. Complaint forms may be hand delivered to the Civil Division or submitted via email. Consumers may also contact the Attorney General Investigative Division Hotline at 237-7630.

The Office of the Consumer Counsel was created by the Consumer Protection Act of 1989, PL 6-46, to protect the consumers of the CNMI from unfair and deceptive business practices, to provide a mechanism for resolving disputes between merchants and consumers, and to provide civil and criminal remedies for violations of the consumer protection laws. The Office of Consumer Counsel also oversees the CNMI's involvement in multi-state consumer protection-related litigation.

● Consumer Complaint Task Force

In 2024, the Attorney General Investigative Division continued to work with the Consumer Complaint Task Force, which is comprised of Department of Commerce, Department of Finance and the Division of Sanitation under the Department of Public Health. The Task Force has focused on consumer complaints involving the sale of expired goods and price gouging with local stores, markets, or supermarkets. AGID opened and investigated eight (8) consumer complaints.

Child Support Enforcement Office

MISSION:

The mission of the Child Support Enforcement Unit:

Every child needs the financial and emotional support of both parents. Our mission is to assist parents in obtaining the financial support necessary to raise their children. Our office assists parents by establishing paternity and enforcing child support and related orders issued by the court. Our goal is to collect and distribute support payments in a timely manner.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS FOR 2024:

The CSEU has reached out to the Department of Labor Workforce Investment Agency who is interested in a partnership to assist non-custodial parents in obtaining employment to be better able to financially support their children.

GOALS FOR 2025:

The CSEU will Investigate the possibility of proposing legislation to begin to enforce child support intrastate. The Office of the Attorney General should be able to assist individuals on this island who have intrastate orders, not just those with interstate orders. To this end, the Office of The Attorney General will require funding to bolster the CSEU.

CASELOAD ACTIVITY:

Total number of employees in the New Hire Database (Including employees before the law was passed):	31,348

WARDSHIP CASES:

The Office of the Attorney General is responsible for removing children from homes where they are abused or neglected. As of December 31, 2024, we had 24 open wardship cases involving 82 children. One case which opened up this past year, involves a child born to a surrogate mother in the CNMI. We expect this case to decide sometime this year on the legitimacy of surrogate birth agreements, and the rights of the surrogate mother versus the rights of the biological parents. This is still an unsettled area of law in the CNMI.

Ikluk Masayos

Chief, Investigative Division

September 3, 2022 – Present

MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of the Attorney General's Investigative Division is to safeguard and be faithful to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands and the United States of America to zealously, effectively and indiscriminately enforce the law equally and impartially; to exemplify the finest law enforcement agency by providing the highest level of professionalism, standards, proficiency, loyalty, and commitment to the CNMI community ; and to investigate and reduce crime by enhancing co-operations and partnerships with other law enforcement and stakeholder agencies.

2024 Highlights

- In 2024, AGID conducted both preliminary and full investigations of (17) total. These cases are a combination of criminal, civil, and consumer cases. The cases range from theft, theft by deception, misconduct in public office, smuggling, fraudulent crimes, illegal notary, ethics violation, procurement violations, assault & battery, disturbing the peace, drug court participant violations, consumer complaints, theft of firearm, resisting arrest, and violations of conditions of release.
- In 2024, the Attorney General Investigative Division has expanded its role in supporting and assisting multiple different agencies both local and federal. In a joint effort AGID has been a part of numerous operations to combat consumer complaints, and other criminal cases that include misuse of food stamps, misconduct in government office, to include theft and theft by deception reports. AGID assistance was also requested by the U.S. Coast Guard and the Food and Drug Administration Enforcement unit, along with local Customs and Quarantine agencies to conduct joint inspections of containers. AGID assistance was requested by Alcohol, Beverage and Tabaco Control (ABTC) to conduct surveillance and confiscation of illegal sales of alcohol. AGID has taken over cases that were forwarded from Office of Public Auditor. Establishing a good working relationship with multiple different agencies enables AGID to be well-versed, well-informed, as it increases the chances of receiving key intelligence that may be vital in conducting their investigations.

The Information Technology (IT) Unit manages and maintains the information systems and technologies for the Office of the Attorney General (OAG). The IT Unit's responsibilities include managing computer and server infrastructures, database administration, cybersecurity, and physical security measures. Additionally, the Unit provides tiered technical support for hardware and software-related issues and oversees office facility maintenance when required. The IT Unit remains dedicated to ensuring technological efficiency, security, and compliance while supporting OAG's mission. We look forward to continued improvements and strategic advancements in 2025.

Hardware, Software and User Support

To strengthen network security and system reliability, the IT Unit implemented:

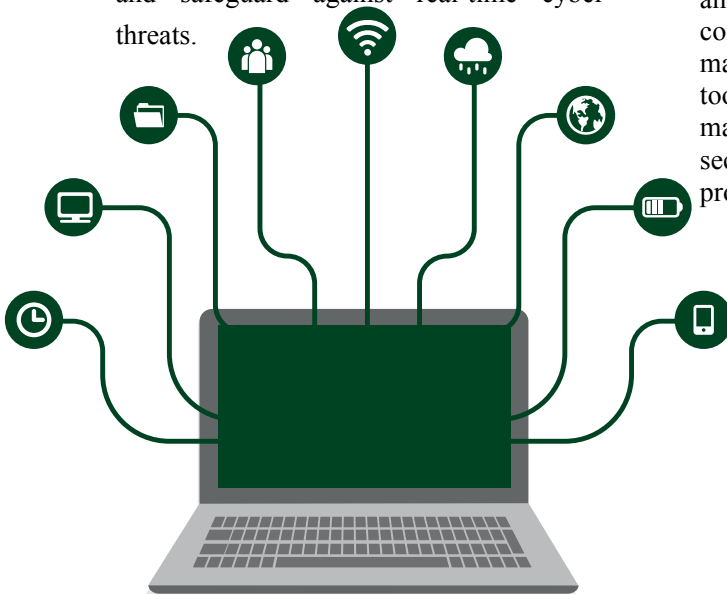

- Advanced firewall configurations and intrusion detection systems to mitigate cybersecurity threats.
- Regular vulnerability assessments to identify and address system weaknesses.
- Multi-factor authentication (MFA) for critical systems to enhance access security.
- Endpoint protection upgrades to monitor and safeguard against real-time cyber threats.

Network Security & Cybersecurity Enhancements

To strengthen network security and system reliability, the IT Unit implemented advanced firewall configurations and intrusion detection systems to mitigate cybersecurity threats. The IT Unit also conducted regular vulnerability assessments to identify and address system weaknesses. Further, we implemented multi-factor authentication (MFA) for critical systems to enhance access security as well as endpoint protection upgrades to monitor and safeguard against real-time cyber threats.

Future Objectives

For the upcoming year, the IT Unit will focus its priority on refining system security protocols and enhancing cloud-based solutions. As well as, continuing staff training initiatives to improve case management efficiency. Further expand automation tools for document processing and legal case management. Lastly, we will explore AI-driven security solutions to detect and prevent cyber threats proactively.
